we work for you
in Scotland
www.bluearrow.co.uk
blueArrow

THE
ROBERT GORDON
UNIVERSITY
ABERDEEN
Fiona Proud
Student Finance Officer
STUDENT ADMINISTRATION
Schoolhill
Aberdeen
AB10 1FR
United Kingdom
Tel: 01224 262668
Fax: 01224 262490
e-mail:
f.proud@rgu.ac.uk

www.espe.ca
espe

we work for you
in Scotland

www.bluearrow.co.uk

staffing solutions

blueArrow

THE
ROBERT GORDON
UNIVERSITY
ABERDEEN

Fiona Proud

Student Finance Officer
STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

Schoolhill
Aberdeen
AB10 1FR
United Kingdom
Tel: 01224 262668
Fax: 01224 262490
e-mail:
f.proud@rgu.ac.uk

[27] Lieut. General C. A. Barwell served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 (Medal). Was Officiating Brigade Major at Lucknow at the time of the outbreak in May 1857 and continued to serve in that capacity throughout the defence of the Residency until the final relief of the garrison in Nov. 1857; subsequently served as a Brigade Major in the field and was present at the battle of Cawnpore; and as a D. A. Adjutant General at the siege and capture of Lucknow, attack on Fort Rooyah and action of Allygunge, reoccupation of Shahjehanpore, battle of Bareilly, and action on the Sardah—wounded (frequently mentioned in despatches, thanked by Government, Brevets of Major and Lt. Colonel, Medal with two Clasps, and a year's service).

[28] Lieut. General J. T. Shakespear served in the Sutlej campaign in 1845–46, including the battles of Moodkee and Ferozeshah (Medal and Clasp). Served in the Punjaub in 1857 (Medal).

[31] The Honorable Sir Henry Ramsay served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 (Medal).

[32] Major General F. D. Atkinson served against the hill tribes in Sind, under Sir Charles Napier.

[33] Major General R. N. Raikes served the Gwalior campaign, and was present at the battle of Punniar, 29th Dec. 1843 (Bronze Star). Served also in the Burmese war of 1852 (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

[34] Major General G. A. Fisher has received the Medal for the Punjaub Campaign of 1848–49. Commanded outposts of Michloo and Shubdar on the Peshawur frontier from Feb. 1853 to May 1854, and was present in the action of Shah Moosah Kheyl (Medal). At the Alumbagh at the relief of Lucknow in Nov. 1857; and attached to the force under Outram from Nov. 1857 until the taking of Lucknow in March 1858 (Medal with two Clasps).

[35] Major General C. Harris served in Afghanistan during the operations of 1841–42 (Medal).

[36] Colonel S. Richards served in the Sutlej campaign of 1845–46, and was present at the battle of Sobraon (Medal).

[37] Major General J. E. Gastrell served against the Jeypore Insurgents in 1838. Also in the Bundlecund campaign of 1842–43. Served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the passage of the Chenab and affair at Ramnuggur, battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, and pursuit of the Sikh Army (Medal with two Clasps). Served also in the Sonthal campaign of 1855, and commanded one of the columns in the final beating up and subjection of the tribe.

[38] Major General G. Jackson served in Bundlecund in 1842. Also in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 (Medal). Served during the operations on the Peshawur frontier in 1851–52 under Sir Colin Campbell, and when in command of the outpost of Mutta repulsed the attack of the combined Momund tribes on the 8th Dec. 1852 (Medal with Clasp). Was twice wounded in an attack on a body of mutineers of the 5th Bengal Native Infantry in 1857.

[39] Major General J. K. Spence served in the campaign in Afghanistan in 1839–40 (Medal).

[40] Major General H. Nicoll served during the disturbances in the Saugor and Bundlecund districts in 1842–43. The Gwalior campaign of 1843–44, including the battle of Punniar (Bronze Star). The Punjaub campaign in 1848–49 (Medal). The Sonthal campaign in 1855–56. Served as Brigade Major at the battle of Budlee ke Serai on the 8th June 1857, storming the heights before Delhi, throughout the siege assault and final capture of the city (Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

[41] Major General A. Turner served during the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 (Medal).

[42] Colonel M. J. Turnbull served with the 7th Bengal Light Cavalry in Sind for two years on the frontier under Sir Charles Napier in 1844–45; and in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 with the force under General Wheeler, the greater portion of the time as Officiating Quarter Master General to the Force (mentioned in despatches, Medal).

[43] Major General R. C. Lawrence served in the Sutlej campaign in 1846, and was present at the battle of Sobraon (Medal). Served in the Indian mutiny campaign as Political Officer in charge of the Cashmere Contingent under General Wilson in 1857, and was present at the assaults and capture of Delhi, commanding the 4th Column of assault (Major Reid being wounded (mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, CB., Medal with Clasp).

[44] Major General E. T. Dalton was engaged in expeditions against the frontier tribes in Assam in 1839–40 and 42. Planned and superintended an expedition which surprised and captured the Mishnee Chief who had murdered the French Missionaries Kirk and Bourry on the Thibetan frontier, and received the special thanks of the Governor General. Served in 1858 as Commissioner of Chota Nagpore, with the field force under Major MacDowell against rebels in Palamow. From May 1858 to Feb. 1859 was employed against the Singhboom Insurgents (Medal).

[45] Colonel J. C. Haughton served throughout the campaign of 1838–42 in Beloochistan and Afghanistan, including the storming of the Bolan Pass, repulse of a night attack of Merab Khan, action of Abee Khan, throughout the siege of Cheerekar and commanded the 6th Goorkhas when it was cut to pieces (severely wounded, losing right hand). Was present with the army at Cabul during the siege and left in hospital, in the enemy's hands under General Elphinstone's capitulation, remaining a prisoner till September 1842; afterwards served with Broadfoot's Sappers and Miners during the re-occupation of Cabool and march from Afghanistan. Served with the Ramghur Battalion at the defeat of the enemy in seven days during 1846–47.

[46] Colonel H. Hopkinson served as Political Officer against the hill tribes of the Kolvelyne in Dec. 1847 and Jan. 1848, and was present at the surprise of the Akong Stockade. Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, and pursuit of the Sikh Army and Afghans to Peshawur (Medal with two Claspe). Burmese war in 1852, including the capture of Martaban (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

[47] Colonel J. R. McMullin served the Gwalior campaign, and was present at the battle of Punniar on 29th Dec. 1843 (Bronze Star). Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the action of Soroghkoond, siege and surrender of Mooltan, and battle of Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps).

[48] Colonel T. F. Wilson commanded a detached Company of the 13th Bengal Native Infantry at the capture of the fort of Chirgong in April 1841 (mentioned in despatches). Also at the action of Punwarreein Bundlecund in June 1842. Served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the action of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, and battle of Goojerat and subsequent pursuit of the Sikh Army (Medal with Clasp). Was appointed Deputy Assistant Adjutant General to Sir Henry Lawrence on the 21st May 1857, and present in the action with the mutineers in the old cantonment of Lucknow on the night of the 30th and morning of the 31st May, also at the battle of Chinhut the 30th June, and was slightly wounded by a piece of the same shell by which Sir Henry Lawrence was mortally wounded (mentioned in despatches). Served as Deputy Assistant Adjutant General to the old Lucknow Garrison throughout the entire defence of the Residency, a period of 145 days (slightly wounded, and was prominently mentioned in despatches, and thanked by Government "for courage, activity, and sound judgment in a very high degree"). Served with the force under Colonel the Hon. Percy Herbert in pursuit of Feroze Shah and a rebel force in 1859 (Medal with Clasp, CB., Brevet of Major, a year's extra service, and Aide de Camp to the Queen).

[51] Major General A. Boyd served with the force under Sir Charles Napier against the hill tribes in Sind in 1844–45. Throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the affair at Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (wounded), pursuit and surrender of the Sikh Army, and subsequent pursuit of the Afghans to the Khyber Pass (Medal with two Clasps). Commanded four Companies of the European Bengal Fusiliers in the operations in Burmah against the rebel chief Moung Goung Gee in 1854–55. Commanded the 2nd European Bengal Fusiliers at the battle of Budlee-ke-serai, and during all the operations before Delhi in 1857, including the storm and capture of the city (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

[52] Colonel G. C. Hatch served as Deputy Judge Advocate General of the Army under Lord Clyde at the relief of Lucknow in 1857 and in the subsequent operations at Cawnpore (Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp).

[56] Colonel A. H. Ternan served in Bundlecund in 1842–43, and was several times engaged with the rebels. Sutlej campaign in 1846, including the action of Aliwal (Medal). Punjaub campaign in 1849 (Medal, mentioned in despatch). Indian mutiny campaigns of 1857–58, including numerous expeditions against the rebels in the Nuraingore, Saugor, and Jubulpore districts. Commanded a party of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry in an attack on a body of rebels in the Saugor district (horse killed, thanked by the Lt. Governor of the Central Provinces). Served with the Central India Field Force under Sir Hugh Rose as Deputy Commissioner of Jalonn (Medal with Clasp), and present at the forcing of the Muddunpore Pass, action of the Betwah, siege and capture of Jhansi, action of Konch, taking of Kalpee (mentioned in despatch). Served as Aide de Camp to Brigadier MacDuff at the action of Sahao (mentioned in despatches). Mentioned in Governor General's minute of 2nd July 1859. The gracious approbation of Her Majesty conveyed by letter from the Secretary of State for India, dated 4th June 1861.

[58] Colonel R. R. Mainwaring served in the Sutlej campaign in 1846 and was present at the battle of Sobraon (Medal). Sonthal campaign of 1855. Indian mutiny campaign including several actions with the rebels (Medal).

[59] Colonel A. Macqueen served throughout the operations of the Candahar Force under General Nott in 1840–42, including the advance upon Ghuznee and Cabool, and taking of Istaliff (Medal). Throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845–46, including the battles of Moodkee, Ferozeshah, and Sobraon—wounded (Medal and two Clasps). Indian mutiny campaigns of 1857–59, including relief of Lucknow, defeat of the Gwalior Contingent at Cawnpore, action of Kalee Nuddee, siege and capture of Lucknow, and affairs of Barce and Simree (Medal with two Clasps).

[61] Colonel R. N. Tronson served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the affair of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, and pursuit of the Sikhs and Affghans (Medal with two Clasps). Commanded a detachment of troops and Horse and Foot Police during the rebellion of the Nomad Tribes in the Sutlej in 1857; repulsed with slaughter a night attack of 2000 men and destroyed several of the enemy's villages and strongholds. Marched 55 miles, the greater portion through water, in twenty consecutive hours, with an active enemy on the flank, to the rescue of the city of Pe Puttun. The rapidity of this movement, in the opinion of the local authorities, insured its success, and was the means of preventing the disaffected in Bhawulpore and Sirsa from joining the Googaria insurgents, and of saving the many rich towns and villages on the Sutlej, and of stopping the progress of the rebellion along its banks. Served against the mutineers at Mooltan in August and September 1858 (Medal).

[62] Colonel T. Rattray served the campaign of 1842 in Affghanistan under General Pollock, and was severely wounded at the forcing of the Khyber Pass (Medal). Served with the force under Sir Charles Napier against the hill tribes in Scind in 1844–45. In 1857 raised and disciplined a body of Sikhs (now the 45th Bengal Native Infantry—Rattray's Sikhs) for service in the Sonthal Pergunnahs; commanded them throughout the Sepoy mutiny of 1857–58, and present at the actions of Gya, Akherpore, Dhunchoon, Jugdeespore, Nonoodhee, and Kusma (Brevet of Major, Medal, and several times thanked by Government).

[63] Colonel J. M. Cripps served the campaign of 1842 in Affghanistan under Sir George Pollock, including the forcing of the Khyber Pass and actions of Jugdulluck, Tezeen, and Istaliff (Medal). Also throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845–46, including the battles of Moodkee, Ferozeshah, and Sobraon (Medal and two Clasps).

[64] Colonel J. B. Denys served throughout the operations of the Candahar Force under General Nott, including the various actions leading to the reoccupation of Cabool (Medal). Served during the Sutlej campaign of 1845–46. In 1853 commanded the Kotah contingent and troops sent from Nusserabad in the reduction of the fort of Kurowlee. Commanded the Kotah contingent on the outbreak of the mutinies and was employed some weeks against the rebels in the Agra and Muttra districts; present at the attack on the fort of Ahwal in Rajpootana, and accompanied field forces from Neemuch in civil capacity in pursuit of Bhooree Shah and Tantia Topee.

[70] Major General C. L. Showers was present at the surrender of Kote Kangra in June 1846. Served in the campaign in Western Rajpootana in 1847, and commanded in the attack and reduction of the desert stronghold of Garsesur, resulting in the capture of the marauder chief Thakoor Jowahir Singh. Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, and on Lord Gough's staff at the battle of Goojerat (Medal with Clasp). Served in the Central India campaign in 1857–58 including the pursuit of the Neemuch mutineers, attack and occupation of Neembahera, Cavalry affair before Fort Neemuch, and action of Purtabghur (Medal with Clasp).

[73] Colonel J. A. Wright served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the affair of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, and pursuit of the Sikhs and Affghans (Medal with two Clasps).

[73†] Colonel H. C. Johnstone served in Bundlecund in 1842–43. Commanded the Marree Volunteers in Sept. and October 1857, and aided in suppressing a rebellion among the surrounding Hill Tribes (Medal). Served on the staff of Brigadier General Chamberlain as Surveyor with the expedition against the Cabool Kheyl Wuzeerees in Dec. 1859 and January 1860; and in the same capacity with the expedition against the Mahsood Wuzeerees in April and May 1860. Served throughout the Ensofzie campaign of 1863–64 including the advance to and destruction of Mulka and operations at Umbeyla. Also the Hazara campaign of 1868 and expedition to the Black Mountain (mentioned in despatches, Medal with two Clasps, and CB.).

[74] Colonel S. F. Graham served the campaign of 1842 in Affghanistan (Medal). Also during the Sutlej campaign.

[74†] Colonel B. Parrott served the campaign of 1842 in Affghanistan under General Pollock (Medal).

[75] Colonel J. N. Young served the campaign of 1842 in Affghanistan under General Pollock, including the forcing of the Khyber and Jugdulluck Passes, actions in the Tezeen Valley and on the Huft Kohtul, and recapture of Cabool (Medal).

[76] Colonel G. A. S. Fooks served the Gwalior campaign, and was present at the battle of Punniar (Bronze Star). Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 (Medal). Commanded a detachment during the Sonthal campaign of 1855, including five skirmishes with the rebels.

[77] Colonel W. J. F. Stafford served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–58, including the siege and capture of Delhi (wounded the day of the assault). Commanded the 1st Punjaub Infantry after the assault and until the final evacuation of the city by the rebels. Was Brigade Major of the Hurrianah Field Force, and in command of a portion of it, and present at the surrender of Jhujjur, and action of Narnoul (mentioned in despatches, and thanked by the Governor of the Punjaub). Commanded the 22nd Punjaub Infantry in the action of Kurkrowlee and capture of Bareilly (Medal with Clasp, Brevet of Major, and mentioned in despatches). Served during the China Expedition of 1860–62, and commanded the 11th Punjaub Infantry throughout the operations against the Taeping rebels in the vicinity of Shanghai in 1862, including capture of stockades on 4th April, capture of stockaded village of Tsurpoo, stockades near Kanksiang, capture by escalade of the walled towns of Kading, Tsinpoo, Najow, and Cholin, and repulse of a very superior force on the 25th May; commanded a mixed force at the relief of Tsinpoo. Served throughout the Looshai campaign of 1871–72 in command of the 22nd Bengal Native Infantry (mentioned in despatches, thanked by Government, CB., and Medal with Clasp).

[79] Colonel G. Holroyd served throughout the operations of the Candahar Force under General Nott in 1838–42 (wounded at Bance Raban 15th Sept. 1842), including the advance upon Ghuznee and Cabool, and taking of Istaliff (Medal). Gwalior campaign, and present at the battle of Maharajpore (Bronze Star). Sutlej campaign of 1845–46, including the battle of Sobraon—twelve shot (Medal).

[83] Colonel A. Robinson accompanied the expedition against the rebels in the Cossiah and Jyntea Hills in command of a Wing of the 20th Bengal Native Infantry. Present at the capture of the stockade at Ooksac.

[87] Colonel J. Cockburn Hood served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the first and second siege operations before Mooltan, capture of the city, and action of Soroojkhoond (Medal with Clasp). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1858; commanded a Wing of the 1st Punjaub Infantry in operations under Brigadier General Showers, including the capture of the Fort of Jhujjur, also present in the action of Shumshabad, siege and capture of Lucknow and storming of the Begum's Palace, and dangerously wounded when commanding 4th Punjaub Infantry in assault on the final position held by the Moodire (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major). Commanded the 4th Punjaub Infantry at the surprise of Besotee village of Gera 25th Feb. 1859. Has twice received the thanks of the Lt.Governor of the Punjaub for services, and the especial thanks of the Governor General in Council for services in the field, 17th April 1859.

[93] Colonel C. St. G. Brownlow served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the passage of the Chenab, and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps). Served in the Indian mutiny and was Brigade Major to a force under Brigadier McCausland (Medal, and Brevet of Major).

[94] Colonel P. F. Gardiner served against the rebels North of Jullunder in 1848–49, and was present at the storming of the heights of Umb, and occupation of the fort of Oonah (Punjaub Medal).

[101] Colonel W. D. Morgan served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the action of Ramnuggur (Medal). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaigns of 1857–59, as Brigade Major with the Sarun and Gorruckpore Field Forces, and was present at the actions of Schunpore, Phoolpore, Betwa, Amorah, Doomoeragunge, Toolsepore, and Sisera (several times mentioned in despatches, thanked by the Governor General, Medal, and Brevet of Major).

[104] Colonel H. R. Drew served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, and was present at the first and second siege operations before Mooltan (severely wounded), including the attack on the Dhurmsala and action of Soroojkhoond, afterwards present at the battle of Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps).

[107] Colonel C. B. Basden served against the insurgents in Bundlecund in 1844–45 including the capture of the fort of Gegnahut. Received a sabre wound in the right arm at the mutiny of the late 61st Bengal Native Infantry on the 7th June 1857; served afterwards in the Indian mutiny campaign (Medal). Was in command of the 5th Punjaub Cavalry and frontier of Dehra Ismael Khan on the 13th March 1860 when 3000 Mahsoon Wuzeerees who threatened the city of Tâk were repulsed, leaving 200 dead on the field.

[208] Colonel J. J. Hume served throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battles of Moodkee, Ferozeshah, and Aliwal (Medal and two Clasps.)

[209] Colonel J. J. O'Bryen served throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battles of Moodkee, Ferozeshah, and Sobraon (wounded, Medal and two Clasps).

[211] Colonel T. H. Sibley served at the siege and capture of Delhi in 1857 (mentioned in despatches, thanked by Government, Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp).

[212] Colonel A. Paterson served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the affair of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, and pursuit of the Sikhs and Afghans (Medal with two Clasps). Served in the Burmese war in 1853 and was present at the operations against the rebel chief Mong Goung Gye (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

[214] Colonel H. K. Burne served with the 2nd Bengal N.I. throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battles of Moodkee and Ferozeshah, and with the expedition against Kot Kangra. (Medal and Clasp). Served during the Burmese war of 1852-53 as Military Secretary to General Godwin, Commander of the Force, and was present at the captures of Prome and Pegu (several times mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp for Pegu, and Brevet of Major).

[215] Colonel J. T. Norgate served against the rebels in the Googaira district in Oct. and Nov. 1857. Was present at the mutiny at Mooltan and sent in pursuit of the mutineers with 50 men of the 11th Punjaub Infantry and a Troop of the 6th Irregular Cavalry; came up with the mutineers after a forced march of 57 miles and destroyed upwards of 500 of them (received the approbation of the Indian and Punjaub Governments, and the thanks of the Home Government). Commanded the 12th Punjaub Infantry in the operations in Bundlecund in 1859 (Medal).

[217] Colonel C. L. Brown served during the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, and was present throughout the siege operations before Mooltan, and at the battle of Goojerat (Medal with Clasp).

[218] Colonel E. J. Spilsbury served in the Burmese war in 1852-53 (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

[219] Colonel H. L. Campbell served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, and was present at the first and second siege operations before Mooltan, including the repulse of the enemy's night attack on the British Camp at Mulree Thol, action of Soroojkhoond, and attack on the suburbs: afterwards present at the battle of Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps). Served at the siege of Delhi in 1857 (Medal with Clasp).

[220] Colonel G. R. Roberts served in the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battle of Sobraon (Medal).

[221] Colonel C. C. Johnson served in the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battle of Sobraon (Medal). Served as D.A.Q.M.General with army Head Quarters at the capture of Lucknow in March 1858 (Medal with Clasp). Served as Chief of the Quarter Master General's Department Force under Major General Wilde in 1858 (mentioned in despatches, thanked by Government, Brevet of Lt.Colonel, Medal with Clasp).

[223] Sir Frederick Richard Pollock served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49; on the Sikh outbreak he was Assistant Resident at Lahore, and accompanied the Ferozepore column as Political Officer to Mooltan; served throughout both siege operations there with the force under Major Edwardes, but joined his own regiment for the assault of the town (thanked by the Commander in Chief for conduct when in command of detachments (Medal with Clasp). Employed in the expedition under Sir Charles Napier against the Affreedees in the Kohat Pass in 1850 (Medal with Clasp). Accompanied as Civil and Political Officer the centre column in Major Nicholson's expedition against the Omurzye Wuzeeres. In 1857 had Civil Conduct of the expedition under Brigadier General Chamberlain to the Bozder Hills. Accompanied the Huzara Field Force of 1868 as Political Commissioner) mentioned in despatches, and thanked by Government of India).

[224] Colonel A. Elderton served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the action of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (severely wounded), and pursuit of the Sikhs and Afghans (Medal with two Clasps). Served throughout the siege of Delhi in numerous engagements, and was severely wounded at the taking of three guns outside the Cashmere Gate; and was again severely wounded at the assault and capture of the city. Commanded the 2nd Sikh Irregular Cavalry with various columns in Oude and Rohilkund, and at the action of Biswa. Commanded a column in pursuit of the rebel leader Desput (Medal with Clasp).

[226] Colonel H. Forbes served throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battles of Moodkee (horse killed), Ferozeshah, and Sobraon (Medal and two Clasps). Throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the passage of the Chenab, and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps). Served as Adjutant 1st Punjaub Cavalry in the forcing of the Kohat Pass by Sir Charles Napier in 1850 (Medal with Clasp). Served throughout the defence of the Residency at Lucknow and was wounded; again wounded while serving with the Punjaub Cavalry; present also at the battle of Cawnpore, and as a Brigade Major of Cavalry at the siege and capture of Lucknow (twice mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, Medal with two Clasps, and a year's service).

[228] Colonel W. E. Marshall served throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battles of Moodkee, Ferozeshah, and Aliwal—wounded (Medal and two Clasps).

[230] Colonel J. A. Tytler served with the Force under Sir Colin Campbell against the hill tribes on the Peshawur frontier in 1851-52; and in the Boori Pass in 1853 (Medal with Clasp). Served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857-59, including the defence of the Kumaon Hills and Rohilcund against the rebels, and was shot through the left arm and received a spear wound in the chest while engaged in a hand-to-hand fight in the action of Choopoorah on 10th Feb. 1858 (Victoria Cross). Also served in the Oude campaign of 1858-59, including the actions of Pusgaon and Russoolpore, attack and capture of Fort Mittowlee, and action of Biswah (Medal). Commanded the 4th Goorkhas in the Umbeylah Pass in 1863, including the assault and capture of the Conical Hill and villages of Lalloo and Umbeyla. Again in the Hazara campaign in the Black Mountain in 1868 (Clasp); and in the Looshai expedition in 1871-72 (Clasp). Has been four times mentioned in despatches.

[231] Colonel F. J. Stephenson served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857, including the action near Agra with the Neemuch mutineers on the 5th July, and the relief of Agra on the 10th October 1857 (Medal).

[232] Colonel S. Black served in the suppression of the rebellion in the Googaira and adjoining districts in 1857 (Medal).

[233] Colonel F. Duffin served throughout the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battles of Moodkee and Ferozeshah (Medal and one Clasp). Served in the China campaign of 1857-58 (Medal).

[242] Colonel W. C. R. Mylne served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857-59, and was present at the action of Pandoo Nuddee and other affairs previous to the defeat of Cawnpore under General Windham to whom he acted as Aide de Camp on 27th Nov. 1857 (horse killed under him by a cannon-shot), also present at the battle of Cawnpore, taking of Etawah and Mynpoorie, operations at Ramgunga, and action of Kunkur (twice mentioned in despatches, Medal).

[243] Brigadier General H. T. Macpherson served in the Persian war in 1857 as Adjutant 78th Highlanders, including the night attack and battle of Kooshab, and bombardment of Mohumrah (Medal with Clasp). Served in Bengal with Havelock's Column, present in the actions of Onao (wounded), Buseeratgunge (first and second), Boorbeakechowkee, and Bithoor, and in the several actions leading to and ending in the relief of the Residency at Lucknow and subsequent defence (Victoria Cross); present at Dilkoosha, Alumbagh, including the repulse of the numerous attacks, and served as a Brigade Major in the operations ending in the final capture of Lucknow—wounded (Medal with Clasps, and Brevet of Major).

[245] Colonel E. B. Clay served under Sir Colin Campbell against the hill tribes in 1851-52 (Medal with Clasp). Indian mutiny campaigns of 1857-59, including the defence of the Kumaon Hills and Rohilcund and action of Choopoorah; Oude campaign of 1858-59 including the actions of Pusgaon and Russoolpore, attack and capture of Fort Mittowlee, and action of Biswah (Medal).

[246] Colonel J. S. Ogilvie served as Executive Commissariat Officer during the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

[246] Colonel C. J. Godby served in the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the affair of Buddiwal, action of Aliwal, surrender of Fort Phillour, and subsequent operations in the Jullunder Doab (Medal). Also throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the passage of the Chenab, and actions of Ramnuggur, Sadoolspore, and Chillianwallah—dangerously wounded in a hand-to-hand fight in defence of the Regimental Colours (Medal with Clasp). Was wounded by an assassin in Dec. 1853 when in charge of the Eusoffzie frontier. Has been employed in hunting down and engaged with hill robbers on the Peshawur frontier.

[247] Colonel H. F. M. Boisragon served in the Burmese war in 1852-53, and was present at the relief of the Garrison of Pegu, and commanded a Field Force against the rebel chief Mong Gouneggie (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857-58; commanded a Wing of the Kumaon Goorkha Battalion at the siege storm and capture of Delhi (dangerously wounded); commanded a Force in the Saharunpore district, and on the 10th Jan. 1858 encountered and beat back across the Ganges at Hurdwar upwards of 1000 of the enemy with 4 guns, destroying many of the enemy and capturing arms and munitions of war—thanked by Government (Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

248 Colonel J. K. Couper served with the expedition under General Wheeler against Kote Kangra in 1846.

250 Colonel J. Perkins served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the attack on the Heights of Meerpooria (Medal). Served with the Force under Sir Charles Napier that forced the Kohat Pass in Feb. 1850; and with that under Sir Colin Campbell in 1851-52 and present at the capture and destruction of Dubb (Medal with Clasp). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857, and was wounded at the action of Timmoor Ghaut (mentioned in despatches, Medal).

251 Colonel G. M. Battye served in the Burmese war in 1852-54, and was present at the recapture of Pegu (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

252 Colonel G. A. Williams served with the 4th Sikh Infantry in Burmah in 1852-54; was present at the pursuit and destruction of the enemy's troops under Mouug Shoey Moung, and commanded at the storming of the entrenched village of Yeh (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Commanded three Companies of the 4th Sikh Infantry at the engagement in June 1857 near Loodiana with the Jullundur mutineers, and was dangerously wounded (thanked by Government, Medal, and Brevet of Major).

254 Colonel B. G. Vander Gucht served with the expedition under General Wheeler against Kote Kangra in 1846.

255 Colonel A. K. Comber served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49 (Medal).

256 Colonel J. Burn served in the Burmese war in 1852-53, and was present at the storming of the Great Pagoda at Rangoon (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Served as Adjutant of his Regiment throughout the Sonthal campaign of 1855-56; and as Staff Officer to the Sasseram Field Force in 1858 (Medal).

258 Colonel T. F. Forster served as a volunteer in the Sutlej campaign in 1846, and was present at the battle of Aliwal (Medal).

259 Colonel F. C. Anderson served with the force under General Wheeler in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49 (Medal). Also in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857-58 (Medal).

261 Colonel R. W. Ryall served throughout the Sonthal insurrection in 1855-56. Served as Adjutant of 2nd Hyderabad Cavalry with Kampteee Mewable Column, present at forcing of Khomie Pass on 10th Jan. 1858, at battles of Khobrin and Bundah (wounded, horse also wounded), and in all minor engagements fought by Central India Force under Major General Whitlock up to June 1858. Commanded 3rd Seikh Irregular Cavalry during the Shahabad campaign under Brigadier Douglas, from August 1858; commanded Southern division of Cavalry at battle and capture of Jugdispore in Oct. 1858; mentioned in despatches on nine occasions, recommended for the Brevet of Major, and for the "Victoria Cross" for having at battle of Bandah, while wounded and charger also wounded, rendered essential service, and cut down several of the enemy in hand-to-hand combat, as set forth in despatches of Sir G. C. Whitlock and Major Macintire (Medal with Clasp for Central India).

262 Colonel E. Dandridge served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49 (Medal). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaigns of 1857-59; was Staff Officer to Colonel Sherer at Julpigoree when the Native Cavalry mutinied at that station, and also during the operations against the Chittagong and Dacca rebels; commanded a movable column in Bundlecund and was engaged in repeated expeditions against the rebel leaders Dowlet Singh and Burgore Singh from October 1859 to March 1860 (Medal).

264 Colonel I. F. MacAndrew served in the Indian mutiny campaign as Military Secretary and Aide de Camp to Br. General MacGregor, the Military Commissioner with the Goorkha Force under Jung Bahadore, and was present at the capture of Goruckpore, passage of the Gogra, siege and capture of Lucknow (Medal with Clasp).

265 Colonel W. T. McGrigor joined the 88th Regt. whilst on field service in Oude in Aug. 1858, and served to the end of the campaign against the rebels (Medal).

266 Colonel R. Barter served as Adjutant 75th Regt. throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857-58, and was present at the battle of Budlee ke Serai (severely wounded), siege storm and capture of Delhi, including the six days fighting in the streets, where he commanded the remnant of his Regiment for nearly 24 hours, all senior to him having been killed or disabled. Served with Greathed's Column in pursuit, and present at the action of Bolundshur, affairs of Allyghur and Akerabad, and battle of Agra. With Sir Hope Grant's Column at Canoge, during the advance on Cawnpore; crossed into Oude and present at Maharajgunge, and skirmish near the Alumbagh. With the Alumbagh Garrison, and at the relief of Lucknow by Lord Clyde. Present with the force under Sir James Outram at the Alumbagh until 14th Feb. 1858, and constantly engaged repelling the enemy's attacks. Commanded two Ressalahs of Irregular Cavalry in the advance into Rohilcund and re-occupation of Bijnour (Medal with two Clasps).

267 Colonel A. A. Munro served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49 (Medal). Also in the Sonthal campaign of 1855-56. Served the Umbeyla campaign of 1863 with the Euzofzaie Field Force under Brigadier General Chamberlain (Medal with Clasp).

270 Colonel A. B. Johnson served in the Burmese war in 1853, and was present at the attack on stockades on the 19th March (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaign (Brevet of Major, and Medal).

271 Colonel A. A. Bruce served with the force under General Wheeler in the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49 (Medal). Served also with the force under Colonel Mackeson against the Hussanzies in 1852-53 (Medal with Clasp).

272 Colonel J. W. R. Boisragon served in the Saharunpore and Mozuffernuggur Districts during the Indian mutiny in 1857-58. Commanded the troops engaged at Sedhowlie, Nookur, and Gungah, and commanded the Infantry detachment at the action of Hurdwar (mentioned in despatches, Medal). Appointed by Lord Strathnairn to the Command of the 30th Bengal Native Infantry on 2nd Sept. 1866 in consideration of useful and gallant service in the field.

276 Colonel F. C. J. Brownlow served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the passage of the Chenab and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps).

277 Colonel W. H. Hawes served during the Sonthal campaign in 1855. Served also throughout the Indian mutiny campaigns of 1857-59 and was present during the siege of Lucknow in 1857 (severely wounded in two places), battle of Cawnpore, and action of Khinkur (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp, and a year's service).

280 Colonel M. J. Bordon served in the Burmese war in 1852-53, and was present at the operations in the vicinity and capture of Rangoon (mentioned in despatches, Medal). Served as Senior Commissariat Officer and Paymaster of the Nepaulese Auxiliary Force under Jung Bahador from Dec. 1857 to June 1858, and was present at the recapture of Goruckpore, capture of the Fort of Julapore, siege and capture of Lucknow (twice mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp).

282 Colonel R. Murray served the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the battles of Sadoolapore, Chillianwallah, and Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps).

283 Colonel W. R. Gordon served in the Burmese war in 1852-53 (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

288 Colonel W. C. Hamilton served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the action of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (horse killed), and pursuit of the Sikhs and Afghans (Medal with two Clasps). Served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857 and was present in action with the rebels at Saugor, and led an advanced party of the 31st Native Infantry when attacked by the rebels on the 19th of July from whom a gun was taken (Medal).

303 Colonel A. C. Bunbury served in the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, including the battle of Ferozeshah and surrender of Kote Kangra (Medal).

306 Colonel C. Armstrong served in the Crimean campaign in 1855 in the Turkish Contingent, and present as a volunteer with the 49th Regt. at the attack of the Redan on the 18th June (Medal with Clasp and Turkish Medal). Was attached to the 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade during the operations at Cawnpore under General Windham in Nov. 1857 and was severely wounded through both legs, the right amputated (Medal). Served as 2nd in command of the 14th Bengal Native Infantry during the Umbeyla campaign of 1863 (Medal with Clasp).

311 Colonel W. H. Smith served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the action of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps). Served with the 6th Foot in the Indian mutiny campaign, including operations in the Jugdespore jungles, and action of Barvan (Medal).

313 Colonel W. Carnell served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848-49, including the passage of the Chenab and battle of Goojerat (Medal with Clasp). Served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857-58, and commanded a detachment of the Bhairwara Local Battalion at the attack on Alwa on the 18th September 1857 (Medal).

[314] Colonel J. Macdonald served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 (Medal).

[315] Colonel R. Y. Chambers served in China in 1858–59 (Medal).

[316] Colonel J. T. Watson was engaged in street fighting at Lucknow previous to the action of Chinhat when the Mahomedans rose on the troops at the Dowlutkhanna, and served throughout the defence of the Residency at Lucknow in 1857, frequently in command of the Cawnpore Battery, afterwards present at the battle of Cawnpore and defeat of the insurgent Gwalior Contingent (Medal with Clasp, and a year's service).

[317] Colonel J. W. Orchard served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–58, including the siege storm and capture of Delhi (Medal with Clasp). Served in the Mahsood expedition of 1860 and was present at the forcing of the Berara Pass (Medal with Clasp).

[318] Colonel G. A. Brown served with the expedition on the Eusofzie border in April and May 1858, and was present at the destruction of Chingalee and Sittana, and commanded the present 1st Bengal Native Infantry at the attack on Sittana and until the force returned (mentioned in despatch, Medal with Clasp).

[319] Lt.Colonel G.G.Cunliffe served as a volunteer in the Nynee Tal Militia, raised for the protection of that place, from 3rd June to 26th Dec. 1857, and assisted in the surprise and defeat of a body of rebels belonging to Khan Bahadoor Khan that had occupied Huldwaree. Commanded a Detachment of the Kemaon Levy at the action of Churpoorah, and a portion of a Field Force at the action of Surpoorah, succeeding to the command of the Force on Capt. S. Brown being severely wounded—charger disabled by sword cuts (thanked by the Governor General and the Commander in Chief for gallant conduct. Medal).

[320] Lt.Colonel R. D'O. C. Bracken served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the first and second siege operations before and surrender of Mooltan, and battle of Goojerat (Medal with two Clasps). Commanded a Detachment of the 2nd Sikh Infantry at the repulse of insurgents at Murree in 1857; and served in the operations against Sittana in 1858 (Medal with Clasp).

[321] Colonel C. H. Palliser as Adjutant Sind Camel Corps was severely wounded in an action with the Sheoraneea on the Derajat Frontier on the 14th March 1853 (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp). Served the Indian mutiny campaign of 1858–59; accompanied the Advance Column under Major Renaud from Allahabad towards Cawnpore (wounded) and (by relief) in command of the Cavalry with Brigadier Cotlock's force from its first taking the field; commanded Irregular Cavalry in the actions of Futtehpore; commanded right troop with Barrow's Volunteer Cavalry in the actions of Mungarwar, Alumhagh, and first relief of Lucknow (wounded, and two horses shot); defence of the Residency till the second relief by Lord Clyde; subsequent occupation of the Alumbagh under Outram from November 1857 to March 1858 including actions of Gahilee, repulse of rebel attack, capture of Lucknow. Served with Hodson's Horse at reoccupation of Fyzabad and crossing of the Goomtee at Sultanpore. Commanded 1st Regiment of Hodson's Horse in the action of Bhooboopore and in repulse and pursuit of rebels at Khandoo Nuddee—dangerously wounded (mentioned in despatches, Medal with two Clasps, a year's service, and Brevet of Major). Commanded the 10th Bengal Cavalry in the Abyssinian expedition (mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Lt.Colonel, and Medal).

[327] Lt.Colonel J. M. Graham served during the Indian mutiny in 1857–59 (Medal), and received through the Secretary of State for India the most gracious approbation of Her Majesty for services performed during that period; also mentioned and thanked in Government orders and despatches. Commanded the 5th Battalion of Military Police in the expedition against the Lushai tribes in 1860–61. Served in Bhootan with the force under Brigadier General Tombs at the recapture of the Hill Forts of Dewanpri in 1865 (Medal with Clasp). Served as Political Officer with the force under Brigadier-General Stafford against the Duffa tribes in 1874–75.

[330] Colonel F.W. Graham served in Burmah in 1852–53, and was present at the operations against Myah Toon near Donabew (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Served in Oude throughout the mutinies, and present in the action of Chinhut (wounded, and charger also wounded), defence of the Residency of Lucknow (wounded), including assault of 18th August and sorties of 29th Sept. and 2nd Oct., throughout the occupation of the Alumbagh, including the surprise of the Gahilee and Mohdee, 25th Feb., relief of Lucknow, relief of Sumdeela, action of Jamoo, and capture of Birwah (several times mentioned in despatches, Medal with two Clasps, a year's service, and Brevet of Major).

[331] Lt.Colonel W. T. Fagan served in the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Commanded the 7th Bengal Police Battalion in the expedition against hostile tribes on the South-east frontier in January and February 1861.

[333] Lt.Colonel E. G. Clark served with the Nepaulese Force in the Indian mutiny campaign from July 1857 to April 1858; commanded the Left Column in the action of Chanda and captured 5 guns, afterwards present in the actions of Chanda (second), Umeerpore, and Sultanpore, siege and capture of Lucknow; present as Civil Officer at the relief of Hussunganj, capture of Rooie Mehewlee, and capture of Meliandee (Medal with Clasp).

[336] Lt.Colonel J. F. Sherer served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, and was present throughout the siege operations before Mooltan, including the action of Soorjkoond, attack on the Suburbs, storm and capture of the City, and surrender of the fortress (Medal with Clasp). Led the Head Quarters of the Sylhet Light Infantry into action against the mutineers of the 34th Bengal N.I. at Latoo, Sylhet district, on 17th Dec. 1857, succeeded to the command of the Corps on Major Byng being killed at the commencement of the fight and brought it out of action after defeating and routing the mutineers (Medal).

[338] Major General P. S. Lumsden served with the force employed in various expeditions against the frontier tribes in 1852–56; served as D. A. Qr. Master General at the action of Punjhao 15th April 1852; at Nowadund, Pranghur, Iskakôt, and operations in the Ranezai Valley in May 1852; against the Boree Afreedees in 1853; to Shah Mooseh Kheyl against the Mohmund Tribe in 1854; expedition against the Meranzaie tribe in April 1855, including the cavalry affair at Dursummund; against the Busay Khelut Alum in November 1855; in Meranzaie and Kooram expeditions in November 1856 (received thanks of the Local and the Supreme Governments). Served in a Special Military Mission to Affghanistan in 1857–58, and received the thanks of the Supreme Government (Medal with Clasp). In July 1848 he joined the Gwalior Force under General R. Napier, and was present at Ranode and subsequent pursuit in Central India (mentioned in despatches, Medal). Accompanied the expedition to China in 1860, and was present at the actions of Sinho and Tangchow, assault and capture of the Taku Forts, and advance on Pekin (mentioned in despatches, Medal with two Clasps, and Brevet of Major). With Bhootan Field Force in 1865 (Clasp).

[344] Sir Charles H. Brownlow was present with the Army of Reserve during the Punjaub war of 1848–49. Served with the 1st Sikh Infantry in the Black Mountain campaign, Hazara, in 1852–53; against the Momund Tribes in August 1854, when he was shot through the lungs; and in the Bozdar Expedition of 1857. Commanded the 20th Punjaub Infantry in the operations on the Eusofzai Frontier in 1858; throughout the China war of 1860, including the action of Sinho, taking of the Taku Forts, and occupation of Pekin (Brevet of Major); the Umbeyla campaign of 1863 (Brevet of Lt.Colonel and CB.); and the Hazara Expedition of 1868. Commanded an Expeditionary Column into the Looshai Country in 1871–72 (thanked by the Government of India, KCB). Is an Aide de Camp to the Queen. Has received the Punjaub Medal, the China Medal with Clasps for the Taku Forts and Pekin, and the Indian Medal with Clasps for North-West Frontier, Umbeyla, and Looshai.

[345] Lt.Colonel J. G. S. Matheson served throughout the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the action of Ramnuggur, passage of the Chenab, and battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat (wounded), and pursuit of the Sikhs and Afghans (Medal with two Clasps). Served with a field force in Tharawaddie, Burmah, in 1853–54.

[345a] Lt.Colonel J. Barry served during the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

[346] Lt.Colonel R. S. Moseley served in China and was present in the engagement of the 8th Jan. 1859 when the battery and village of Shek-tsing were captured.

[347] Lt.Colonel A. W. Montagu served in the Burmese war in 1852–53 (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Served with the Trans-Gogra Force on the Nepaul frontier in 1858–59, and was present at the action of Toolsepore (Medal).

[348] Lt.Colonel A. H. Bamfield served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the battles of Chillianwallah and Goojerat, and pursuit of the Sikhs and Affghans (Medal with two Clasps). Accompanied the expeditionary force against the Boree Afreedees in the Kohat Hills in 1853 (Medal with Clasp).

[349] Lt.Colonel H. Maxwell served in the Burmese war in 1852–53 and was present at the storm and recapture of Pegu (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Served as Adjutant of the 1st Bengal European Fusiliers in the Trans-Goomtee operations terminating in the assault and capture of Lucknow; present in subsequent operations in Oude, defeating the rebels and capturing their guns (Medal with Clasp).

[351] Lt.Colonel N. Barton served in the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49 (Medal).

[352] Lt.Colonel B. Walton served with the 53rd Regt. in the Punjaub campaign in 1849 and was present at the battle of Goojerat (Medal with Clasp). With the expedition against the hill tribes on the Peshawur frontier in 1851–52 (Medal with Clasp). Campaign in India in 1857, including relief of Lucknow by Lord Clyde, and severely wounded at the storming of the Secunderbagh (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

[354] Lt.Colonel H. H. Lyster served on the Staff of Sir Hugh Rose as Interpreter and Aide de Camp throughout the Central India campaign from Dec. 1857 to July 1858, including the siege and capture of the town and fort of Rathgbur and repulse of the rebels in an attack on the camp during the siege, action of Baroda (sabre wound and charger also wounded), taking of Baroda, forcing the Muddinpore Pass, siege and storm of the town and capture of the fort of Jhansi, battle of the Betwa, action of Koonch and capture of the town (charger received one bayonet and two sabre wounds), attack on the camp of the 2nd Brigade at Muttra, attack on the camp of the 1st Brigade at Goolowlee, taking of the town and fort of Calpee, action at and capture of Morar cantonments, storming of the Lushker and fort of Gwalior (three times mentioned in despatches, twice for gallant conduct in the field, Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp, and awarded the Victoria Cross "for gallantly charging and breaking, singly, a skirmishing square of the retreating rebel army from Calpee and killing two or three sepoys in the conflict").

[355] Lt.Colonel F. B. Norman served in the Punjaub throughout the Indian mutinies of 1857–58; as Assist.Quarter Master General with Eusofzai Field Force at Umbeyla in 1863; present with 2nd Brigade under Colonel W. W. Turner at storming of Conical Hill and destruction of Lalloo on 15th December and action in Chumra valley on following day, and with 2nd Brigade under Colonel A. Wilde in subsequent operations; served as Assistant Quarter Master General throughout the campaigns in Bhootan in 1864–65 and 1865–66; on 14th March 1865 when reconnoitring in Goorooogaon Pass with a Company of Khelat-i-Ghilzie Regiment and a Company of 29th Punjaub Native Infantry captured four stockades, inflicting severe loss on the enemy; received by telegraph thanks of His Excellency Sir Hugh Rose and was afterwards thanked by Government of India; present at recapture of Dewangirthy before force under Brigadier General Tomlin on 2nd April 1865; accompanied the force under Colonel W. Richmond on its advance towards Tongsoo on February 1866 resulting in capture of Suleeka, occupation of the Iron Suspension Bridge over Monass and restoration by Booteahs of the guns they had captured at Dewangiri in February 1865; served as 2nd in Command 24th Punjaub Native Infantry throughout the Black Mountain expedition under Major General A. Wilde in 1868; has been favourably mentioned in despatches of six Officers commanding field forces or brigades; has received thanks of two Commanders in Chief; commendation of Government of India for capture of stockades in Goorooogaon Pass in March 1865; a Brevet Majority for services in Bhootan in 1864–65; Indian Mutiny Medal, and India Medal with Clasps for Umbeyla, Bhootan, and North-West Frontier.

[357] Lt.Colonel C. S. Lane served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–58, including the siege and capture of Delhi, actions of Bolundshur, Allyghur, and Agra, relief of Lucknow by Lord Clyde, and battle of Cawnpore on 6th Dec. 1857 (Medal with two Clasps).

[358] Lt.Colonel H. M. Wemyss served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857, including the battle of Budlee-ka-Serai and Nojufghur, several engagements before Delhi, siege and capture of the city—wounded (Medal with Clasp).

[359] Lt.Colonel B. T. Stafford served as 2nd in command of the 22nd Bengal Native Infantry in China, including the following operations against the Taeping rebels in the vicinity of Shanghaie in 1862, capture of stockades on the 4th April, capture of the stockaded village of Tserpoo on the 17th April and of stockades near Nanhsiang on the 29th April, capture by escalade of the walled towns of Kading, Tsinpoo, Najow, and Cholin, and repulse of a very superior force of the rebels on the 25th May.

[360] Lt.Colonel D. S. Buist served with the Sylhet Light Infantry in pursuit of the three Companies 34th Benga Native Infantry who mutinied at Chittagong on the 18th Nov. 1857. Commanded a Detachment at the action of Binna Candy in the Cachar district on 12th Jan. 1858 (mentioned in despatches, thanked by Government, and Medal). Commanded Six Companies of the Sylhet Light Infantry employed in the Jynteah Hills in suppressing the Cossiah insurrection in 1860, including skirmishes on the 26th and 28th March, and capture of the stockaded village of Moong Gougie. Again served in the Cossiah and Jynteah Hills during the rebellion of 1862–63, including the capture of the stockades of Moonson, Ooksaie, Nunghai, Ralleang, and fourth capture of Moonseri. Served in the Bhootan expedition in 1865 (Medal with Clasp).

[362] Lt.Colonel H. C. Smith served in the actions against the hill tribes on the Peshawur frontier in 1854–55, including the capture and destruction of Dhub and Sardine in August 1854; expedition against the Busee Kheil Afreedees in Dec. 1854 and March 1855 (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp). Served as Interpreter to the 19th Foot with the force under Brigadier Kelly on the Nepaul frontier in 1859.

[363] Lt.Colonel J. Graham served in the Indian mutiny campaigns in 1857–58, including the siege and capture of Lucknow, affairs of Khoorsee and Barrow, and Simree, action of Nawabgunge, reoccupation of Fyzabad, and passage of the Gogra (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp).

[364] Lt.Colonel A. A. Currie served as 2nd in command of the 23rd Bengal Native Infantry in the Abyssinian campaign in 1868, and was present at the action of Arogee and capture of Magdala (mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, and Medal).

[366] Lt.Colonel H.Z. Darrah was present when the 41st Bengal Native Infantry mutinied at Seetapore on the 3rd June 1857, when he escaped into Lucknow. Remained on duty at the Muchee Bhawun Fort, and afterwards at the Residency throughout the defence until the final relief of the Garrison of Lucknow. Afterwards served as Assistant Baggage Master in the field with the 3rd Infantry and Artillery Brigades until Feb. 1858 (Medal with Clasp, and a year's service).

[367] Lt.Colonel H. E. Whish served as a volunteer at the siege of Mooltan (Medal with Clasp).

[368] Lt.Colonel J. W. Hoggan served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–58, and was present at the actions of Bhagonala, Nugeena, Bareilly, and Mohumpore—severely wounded (Medal).

[369] Lt.Colonel J. M. Harris served in the 2nd European Bengal Fusiliers with the force before Delhi in 1857, was present at the battle of Budleekeserai and subsequent operations before Delhi, and severely wounded throughout thigh in the Subzee Mundee on the 27th June; served subsequently in Oude in 1858–59 (Medal with Clasp). Served with the 15th Punjaub Infantry in the campaign of 1860 in China, including the action of Sinho, taking of Tangku, and actions of Chankiawhan and Paliachow, and advance on Pekin (Medal with two Clasps).

[370] Lt.Colonel R. G. Rogers served throughout the Umbeyla campaign of 1863 (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp). Also throughout the Hazara campaign of 1868, including the expedition against the tribes on the Black Mountain (Clasp).

[371] Lt.Colonel G. C. Rowcroft served with the force against the Hussunzaies on the Hazara frontier in 1852. Commanded the Khelat-i-Ghilzie Regiment with the force on the Eusufzaie frontier and against the fanatics of Sittana in April and May 1858 (Medal with Clasp).

[372] Colonel J. J. H. Gordon served in the Indian campaign of 1857–58 with the Jounpore Field Force attached to the 97th Regt.; at the actions of Nusrutpore, Chanda, Umeerpore, and Sultanpore, at the siege and capture of Lucknow and storming the Kaiser Bagh (Medal with Clasp); and from Sept. 1858 to April 1859 as Field Adjutant to Colonel Turner commanding the Troops on the Grand Trunk road, and Field Force during the operations in Shahabad, final attack on Jugdespore, action of Noandee, and subsequent pursuit (mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major).

[373] Colonel T. E. Gordon served as second in command of the 7th Punjaub Infantry during the Indian campaign of 1858–59, commanded the Regt. at the attack and capture of the Oude Forts Dehayn and Turowl on 14th and 17th July 1858; engaged in operations in the Futtehghur, Azimghur, and Gorrickpore districts in 1858, and in the Terai, Nepaul, in 1859 (three times mentioned in despatches, Medal).

[374] Lt.Colonel R. Chalmers served throughout the Indian mutiny campaigns of 1857–59; advanced with Major Renaud's Column towards Cawnpore and carried his despatch announcing the Cawnpore massacre from Lohunda to Allahabad, a distance of 40 miles through a disturbed country, afterwards joined the Volunteer Cavalry and served with Havelock's Force from its first taking the field in July 1857, and was present at the actions of Futtehpore, Aoung, Pandoo Nuddee, Cawnpore, Oonao, Buseerutgunge (both actions), Mungarwar, and Alumbagh, relief of Lucknow, and subsequent defence of the Residency for two months (twice wounded), during which time he acted as Field Engineer and was present at the assault and capture of the King's stables and engine-house; after the relief of the Garrison by Lord Clyde, served with the force under Outrum, occupying the Alumbagh, including the affair of Ghilee and repulse of the several attacks thereon, also present at the capture of Lucknow, and action of Rattunpore (Medal with two Clasps, a year's service, and Brevet of Major).

[375] Lt.Colonel Lance served with the 98th Foot in the campaign against the Hill Tribes on the Peshawur frontier in 1851–52. Served as a Captain in the Turkish Contingent during the Russian war in 1855–56 (Turkish Medal). Served also in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1858–59 (Medal). Served in the Bhootan campaign of 1864–65 (Medal).

[376] Lt.Colonel T. N. Baker served during the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

[377] Lt.Colonel F. B. Foote was engaged in various expeditions against the mountain tribes near Peshawur in 1851–52 under Sir Colin Campbell (Medal with Clasp). Was engaged from Dec. 1857 throughout the suppression of the mutiny in India, and present with the Goorkha Force under Brigadier General Macgregor at the affairs of Gorrackpore, Shahgunge, and Khandhoonuddee—received the thanks of the Governor-General in Council. Also present at the siege and capture of Lucknow (Medal with Clasp).

[377†] Lt Colonel H. T. Oldfield served in 1854–55 against Hill Tribes on the Peshawur Frontier (mentioned in despatch). Also with the force under Colonel Craigie in the operations against the Busee Kheyl Tribes in March 1855 (Medal with Clasp). Served in May and June 1857 in the Indian mutiny against insurgents. Present at the action of the 5th July 1857 at Agra—charger wounded. Served in command of a Squadron of Sikh Horse with the Column under Brigadier Showers in the pursuit of Tantia Topee from December 1858 to May 1859. Present at the action of Dewsah 18th January 1859—(mentioned for "gallant conduct," and received the thanks of the Government of the North-West Provinces, Medal).

[378] Lt.Colonel H. L. C. Bernard served with the force under Colonel Mackeson in Hazara and the Husunzaie campaign of 1852–53, and present at the affairs of the Black Mountain and taking of the fort. Served as Adjutant of the Hazara Goorkha Battalion throughout the Mahsood Wuzeeree campaign of 1860 with the force under Br.General Chamberlain, and was present at the repulse of the attack on the British Camp at Palooein, storming the Heights of Burrurah, and in the subsequent operations leading to the occupation of Raneegorum and burning of Mookeen (Medal with Clasp).

[380] Lt.Colonel W. Gordon served in Burmah against the rebel Mong Gong Gee in 1854. Had charge of the entrenchments at Allahabad, and command of outposts during the mutinies in 1857 (Medal). Accompanied the Expeditionary Force to China, and was present at the capture of Pekin (Medal with Clasp).

[381] Lt.Colonel H. V. Mathias served throughout the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Was 2nd in Command of the Rewah and Nagode Rajah's Troops at the opening of the Deccan road in 1857–58, during which operations the forts of Kunchunpore Joorah, Myhere city and fort, Jokye, Kunnwarrah, Bejeeragooghur, and 42 pieces of ordnance were taken (slightly wounded). Was 2nd in Command of the Rewah Contingent at the storming of the enemy's position on the Punwarrah Heights, taking all the enemy's guns, killing their leaders, and entirely dispersing their force (Medal).

[382] Lt.Colonel W. Playfair served with the 1st Sind Horse, with the 2nd Division of the Persian Expeditionary Force in 1857, and was present at the bombardment and capture of Mohumra (Medal with Clasp).

[383] Lt.Colonel Melmoth A. Douglas Orchard served during the Indian mutiny of 1857–58, and was present in the actions of the 5th July and 10th October 1857 at Agra (Medal).

[384] Lt.Colonel C. W. Fletcher served throughout the defence of the Residency of Lucknow from the 30th June until its final relief by Lord Clyde on the 17th Nov. 1857, and was severely wounded—shot through the left arm, resulting in the loss of the use of the left hand—whilst on duty as Look-out Officer on the top of the Residency on the 18th August (Medal with Clasp, received a pension for life, and a year's service).

[384†] Colonel D. Macintyre served with both expeditions of 1852, under Sir Colin Campbell, against the Hill Tribes on the Peshawur frontier, including the destruction of the fortified village of Pranghur and action at Ishkakot. Served also with the Expeditionary Force against the Boree Afreedees in November 1853 (Medal with Clasp). Employed on several occasions in 1857–58, when commanding an extra Goorkha Regiment, in protecting the hill passes on the Kalee Kumaon frontier from the Rohilcund rebels, and in keeping the district in order.

[385] Lt.Colonel R. B. Campbell served throughout the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign, against the mutineers near Benares on the 6th July 1857 (charger severely wounded), also at Azimghur, and with the Nepaulese Contingent in the Goruckpore district (Medal). Served also throughout the Bhootan campaign of 1864–65, and was present at the storming and capture of Dalimkote, and of Bala and Nagoh stockades (Medal with Clasp).

[386] Colonel C. Nedham served in the 10th Regt. the Punjaub campaign of 1848–49, including the whole of the siege operations before Mooltan, affair of 9th Sept., storming of the enemy's strongly-entrenched position, capture of the Dowlat Gate, action of Soorjkoomd, and surrender of the fortress; afterwards present at the battle of Goojerat (Medal with Clasp). Served with the 34th Regt. at the defeat of the rebels near Bootwul on the Nepaul frontier on 28th March 1859 (Medal).

[386†] Lt.Colonel J. Hudson served as Adjutant 64th Regt. throughout the Persian campaign of 1856–57, including the storm and capture of Reshire, surrender of Bushire, night attack and battle of Kooshab, and bombardment of Mohumrah (Medal with Clasp). Served in Bengal and N.W. Provinces in suppressing the mutiny in 1857–58; present with Havelock's Column at the actions of Futtehpore, Aonung, Pandoo Nuddee, Cawnpore, Oomao, Busserut Gunge (first and second), Boorheakechowkee, Bithoor, Alumbagh, and first relief of Lucknow; present in all subsequent operations, including three sorties, until the second relief of Lucknow (thanked by Governor General in Council); served in defence of Cawnpore and defeat of the Gwalior mutineers, and action of Kalee Nuddee and Kerkeroulie, and capture of Bareilly; acted as D.A. Adjutant General with Sir H. Havelock at Mohumrah and at Alumbagh (Medal with Clasp, and a year's service for Lucknow). Served as 2nd in Command of the 21st Bengal Native Infantry in the Abyssinian campaign (mentioned in despatches, Medal).

[387] Lt.Colonel E. L. Earle served throughout the siege of Delhi in 1857, and was wounded on the right side by a musket-ball (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp).

[388] Lt.Colonel G. C. Depree served in Arracan during the Burmese war of 1852–53 (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

[391] Lt.Colonel G. A. Prendergast commanded a Squadron Mooltanee Cavalry detached from Shahjehanpore to the assistance of the Rajah of Powayne and commanded at Powayne during the attack on that place by the rebels under Khan Bahadoor Khan and Feroze Shah on the 7th and 8th Oct. 1858. Served as Orderly Officer to Brigadier Troup during the campaign in Oude in 1858–59, and was present in the actions of Pusgaon and Russoolpore, and attack and capture of Fort Mittowlie (Medal).

[392] Lt.Colonel C. H. S. Scott served with the 71st Light Infantry in the Crimean campaign from 7th Feb. 1855, including the siege of Sebastopol, expedition to Kertch, destruction of and affairs at Taman (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Served with the Central India Field Force under Sir Hugh Rose, and was present at the actions of Koonch, Mutra, and Deopoora, battle of Golowlee, capture of Calpee, action of Morar, and capture of Gwalior (mentioned in despatches). On Nov. 1858 accompanied a Flying Column to hunt up rebels in the Gwalior district as Staff Officer to the Column (Medal with Clasp for Central India).

[393] Lt.Colonel W. H. Mackesy served in the Crimea from 16th Aug. 1855, and was present at the siege and fall of Sebastopol, and assault of the 8th Sept., and acted as Assistant Engineer to the Highland Brigade (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Served in the Indian campaign of 1858–59, including the siege and capture of Lucknow; also acted as Assist. Field Engineer from Nov. 1858, and was engaged with the 4th Company Royal Engineers in all the actions and at the taking and destruction of various fortifications from Allahabad to the Nepaul country (Medal with Clasp).

[394] Lt.Colonel M. M. Prendergast served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–58, and was present at the occupation of the Alumbagh under Outram, siege and capture of Lucknow, and subsequent operations in Oude, affair of Bunnee (wounded), and actions of Simree and Nawabgunge (twice mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp).

[395] Lt.Colonel H. H. Gough served as Adjutant of Hodson's Horse throughout the siege of Delhi (wounded). Commanded a Wing of the Regiment in the actions of Bolundshur, Allyghur, and Agra, relief of Lucknow by Lord Clyde, battle of Cawnpore, affairs at Serajpur and Khodagunge, siege and capture of Lucknow (severely wounded), and two horses killed), and action of Ranode (mentioned in despatches on several occasions for "distinguished bravery" and thanked by the Governor General of India, Brevet of Major, Victoria Cross, and Medal with three Clasps).

[396] Lt.Colonel A. Seagrim served with the 1st Royals in the Crimea from the 20th August 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

[397] Lt.Colonel W. Winson served with the Kohat-i-Ghilzie Regiment on the Peshawur Frontier in 1855–56 and during the mutiny in 1857 (Medal). With the same Regiment in Eusofzaie under Sir Sydney Cotton in April and May 1858 Commanded the 18th Bengal Native Infantry during the operations in Bhootan in 1865, and was present at the recapture of the Bala Pass (Medal with two Clasps).

399 Colonel G. R. Westmacott was present with the 23rd Bengal Native Infantry at Mhow when that Regimen mutinied on the 1st July 1857. Commanded a detachment of Hyderabad Cavalry, Infantry, and Artillery in Malwa in 1857. Served with the Central India Field Force under Sir Hugh Rose in 1857–58, and was present at the investment of Indore, siege of Ratghur, repulse of the enemy's attack on our Camp, skirmish of Jhillah (horse severely wounded, sabre cuts, and personally thanked by Sir Hugh Rose), action of Barodia (wounded and twice mentioned in despatches), relief of Sangor, capture of Gurrakota and pursuit to Behra; affair of Zallimpore, battle of Betwa and siege of Jhansi; affair of Kotra, 1st battle of Koonch (horse killed); rear-guard 1st Brigade at Deopora; action of Galowlee, capture of Calpee, action of Billawah (wounded), affair of outposts near Gwalior, and reoccupation of Gwalior. Commanded a Detachment of Artillery and 5th Fusiliers on board the steamer Burhamputra from Cawnpore to Allahabad, and was engaged at Heerapore and Kaleekunka on the passage down in July 1858 (Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

400 Major J. Scouse served in suppression of the Indian mutiny, including the siege and capture of Delhi (mentioned in despatch), battle of Agra, relief of Lucknow by Lord Clyde, and battle of Cawnpore on 6th December 1857 (Medal with two Clasps).

401 Lt.Colonel W. C. Mitchel served with the force under Brigadier Cotton against the Mohmund hill tribe on the Peshawur frontier in August 1854 (Medal with Clasp). Served also during the mutinies in the Goraria district in September, October, and November 1857.

402 Major F. P. Linard served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59,—with the Rajpootana Field Force against the Malwa Insurgents; with the Volunteer Cavalry at the attack and capture of Nimbhera; as a volunteer gunner at the action of Jeerun and defence of Neemuch Fort (mentioned in Bombay general orders for "gallant conduct"). Was attached to the 14th Light Dragoons at the siege and capture of Chandaree and Jhansi; acted as Aide de Camp to Sir Hugh Rose at the battle of Koonch, with capture of the fort and town and pursuit, operations before Calpee, action at Muttra, affair of outposts on 20th May 1858, battle of Golowlee, capture of the town and fort of Calpee and pursuit (mentioned in Governor General's orders for services before Calpee, Medal with Clasp). Served the campaign of 1860 in China with Fane's Horse and commanded a Squadron in the action of Sinho, fall of the Taku Forts, and actions of the 8th and 21st September (acted as Orderly Officer to Brigadier Pattle), and surrender of Pekin (mentioned by Brigadier Pattle as being "several times personally engaged with the enemy," wounded, Medal with two Clasps).

404 Lt.Colonel F. E. A. Chamier served as Aide de Camp to General Outram with Havelock's Force, and was present at the actions of Mungarwar and Alumbagh, relief of Lucknow, and subsequent defence of the Residency until the relief of its Garrison by Lord Clyde; also present at the final capture of Lucknow (mentioned in despatches, Medal with two Clasps, and Brevet of Major).

405 Lt.Colonel H. R. Osborne served as Brigade Major to the Cavalry portion of the force employed on the Eusofzaie frontier in April and May 1858, under Sir Sydney Cotton (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp).

406 Lt.Colonel E. H. C. Simpson served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58; accompanied Havelock's force from its first taking the field in July 1857, and present at the actions of Futtehpore, Cawnpore, Bithoor, and Mungarwar, relief of the Garrison of Lucknow, and subsequent defence of the Residency until relieved by Lord Clyde in Nov. 1857; served afterwards at the defence of the Alumbagh under Outram until February 1858 including the repulse of numerous attacks on that position; also at the final siege assault and capture of Lucknow (mentioned in despatches, Medal with two Clasps, and a year's service).

407 Lt.Colonel E. C. Impey was present at the siege and capture of Kotah by the field force under Major General Roberts in 1858; after the siege he was attached as Political Officer with that force on the march from Kotah to Neemuch (Medal).

408 Lt.Colonel G. J. Pasley served in the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

409 Lt.Colonel J. V. Hunt served with the force under General Van Comtlandt in 1857–58 and was present at the actions of Odawallah, Khyrekee, and Hissar, storm and capture of the village of Mungalee. Commanded the 23rd Punjaub Infantry in the action of Narnoul (twice mentioned in despatches, thanked by Government, Medal).

410 Lt.Colonel C. F. Sharpe served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1858 (Medal).

411 Lt.Colonel P. H. F. Harris served with the China Expeditionary Force in 1858–59, and was present in the White Cloud Expedition against the Braves in June 1858.

412 Lt.Colonel T. E. Vander Gacht served with the force under Sir Sydney Cotton in the Eusofzaie Country in April and May 1858, and was present at the attack on the heights of Sittana (Medal with Clasp).

413 Lt.Colonel B. R. Chambers served the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Also through out the defence of the Residency at Lucknow from the 30th June to the 17th Nov 1857, and was severely wounded (Medal with Clasp, a year's service, and a wound pension). Served with the Eusofzai Field Force in the Umbeyla campaign, and was present in the actions of the 15th and 16th December 1863 (Medal with Clasp). Also with the Hazara Field Force, including operations on the Black Mountain in 1868 (Clasp).

416 Lt.Colonel H. Fellowes served as Adjutant 31st Bengal Native Infantry during the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56; also as Adjutant throughout the mutiny of 1857–59, including the defence of Sangor and operations in Central India. Present with the force under Brigadier F. Wheler in the actions of Jalimpore, Dowlatpore, and Fort of Putna, and pursuit of Tantia Topee (Medal with Clasp). Served as Brigade Major to the Bengal Brigade of the Abyssinian Expeditionary Force in 1868 (mentioned in despatches, Medal).

419 Lt.Colonel J. P. Sherriff served with the 2nd Punjaub Infantry during the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–58, and was present at the siege assault and capture of Delhi including the battle of Nujjuffghur. Accompanied Greathed's Movable Column and present at the battle of Boolundshuhur; was detached with a portion of his Regiment at Allyghur; and subsequently commanded a mixed force in the Etawah District, where he had several engagements with the enemy and captured five guns, after driving the enemy from his position—received the thanks of the Governor General (Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

420 Major Mallock served in Central India in 1857–58, including the action of Mundesore and siege of Ratghur Fort (Medal with Clasp).

421 Lt.Colonel G. C. Thomson served with the army before Delhi in 1857, from the 31st July to the final assault and capture of the city, and commanded a detachment of the Kumaon Battalion in the action of Ludlow Castle under the walls of the city, when four guns were captured (mentioned in despatches). Was afterwards engaged during the operations leading to the final capture of Lucknow; also throughout the Rohilcund campaign, including the capture of Bareilly and several other engagements (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp).

422 Lt.Colonel T. Dennehy served in the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56, and commanded a detachment of two Companies in action with the Insurgents at Chundkundra. Served also during the Indian mutiny of 1857–58, and commanded the Head Quarters of the Allahabad Military Police Battalion at the actions of Manickpore and Gadhamaron (twice thanked by the Governor General, Medal).

423 Lt.Colonel T. J. Watson served in the Indian mutiny campaign, and was present at all the engagements of Brigadier Seton's Column between Delhi and Futtehghur. Also present at the siege of Lucknow. Commanded a Squadron of Hodson's Horse, and present at one engagement (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp).

425 Major Lionel Smith served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–59, and was engaged as a volunteer with the 8th Foot when the mutineers were repulsed from the guns at Jullundur on the 7th June 1857. Served with the Kemaoon Battalion in Oude and on the Nepaul frontier from Oct. 1858 to June 1859, and present in the action of Sitkaghat (Medal).

428 Major E. P. Gordon served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857; present with the Neemuch Force before Nimbherae on 23rd September as a volunteer with the Bengal Artillery, with the Neemuch force in the action with the Mundesore rebels at Jeerun on the 8th October, and with the Artillery in the Fort of Neemuch during the siege by the Mundesore rebels in October and Nov. 1857 (mentioned in despatches, Medal).

429 Lt.Colonel A. H. Bramley served as Orderly Officer to Brigadier Polwhele at the action of the 5th July 1857, with the Neemuch mutineers near Agra; and was also present at the battle of Agra on the 10th October following with the Mhow and Indore Rebels—slightly wounded (Medal).

430 Major W. Musgrave served in the Cape Mounted Rifles and in command of Irregular Troops during the Kaffir war of 1850–53, and was present at all the engagements of importance during the war and at many of them commanded the Irregular Troops engaged (Medal). Commanded a Corps of Irregular Horse of 420 men in the Indian mutiny of 1857-59 (Medal). Served with the 81st Regiment in the Eusoofzie expedition of 1858 in the North-Western Frontier of India (Medal with Clasp).

[432] Major J. T. Bushby served in the Burmah campaign in 1853 (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).

[433] Major J. J. Boswell joined the 3rd Punjaub Infantry when on field service in the Meeranzai valley in December 1856. In June 1857 proceeded in command of a detachment of the 3rd and 6th Punjaub Infantry to join the Movable Column under Brigadier General Nicholson at Umritsur. Accompanied the Column in its forced march of 44 miles to Gurdaspore, and commanded the Native Infantry in the actions with the Sealkote mutineers on the 12th and 16th July 1857 at Trimmu Ghat (Medal). Was present with his Regiment with General Cotton's field force in Eusofzai in 1858; also during the Hazara campaign of 1868; and with Colonel Keye's force against the Bezoties in February 1859 (India Medal with Clasp).

[434] Major H. Tyndall was present at the mutiny of the Native Troops at Jullunder on the 7th of June 1857 and served with the pursuing Column. Served against the rebels near Googaria and Mooltan in 1857-58 (Medal). Also served with the Expeditionary Force against the Mahsood Wuzeerees in April and May 1860, and was present at the action at the Burrarah Pass (Medal with Clasp).

[435] Major F. D. M. Brown served in suppression of the Indian mutiny, including the battle of Budleekeserai, all the engagements under the walls of Delhi, action of Nujjufghur, assault and capture of Delhi, actions of Narnoul, Gungeree, Puttialee, and Mynpoorie, storm and capture of Lucknow, and subsequent operations in Oude (Medal with two Clasps, "Victoria Cross" for great gallantry at Narnoul on the 16th Nov. 1857, in having, at the imminent risk of his own life, rushed to the assistance of a wounded soldier, whom he carried off under a heavy fire from the enemy, whose Cavalry were within forty or fifty yards of him at the time"). Served in the Indian N.W. Frontier war of 1863, and was present at the attack and capture of the Conical Hill, and Umbeyla (Medal with Clasp).

[437] Major M. M. Procter served at the siege and assault of Delhi in 1857, and subsequently with the Kumaon Battalion in the Oude campaign and on the Nepaul frontier (Medal with Clasp).

[438] Major F. Allen served throughout the Sonthal campaign of 1855-56. Commanded the 18th Bengal Native Infantry in the Bhootan Expedition in 1865 (Medal).

[439] Lt. Colonel W. H. Garton served throughout the Sonthal campaign of 1855-56. Served also throughout the mutiny in 1857-58 (Medal). Was severely and dangerously wounded and had his horse killed under him in an attack upon a party of rebels under Sung Ram Sing in the Jaunpore district.

[440] Major J. Roberts served during the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

[441] Major W. G. Waterfield was at Meerut at the outbreak of the mutiny on the 10th May 1857; was afterwards present at the actions of the Hindun (mentioned in despatches), at the battle of Buddleekeserai, and throughout the siege of Delhi. Served as Political Officer to the force that marched from Delhi to Jeypore under Major Redmond in pursuit of Tantia Topee and other rebels (Medal with Clasp).

[442] Major H. E. Waller served during the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

[443] Major S. A. T. Judge served in Burmah in 1852-53 (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Present with the Agra Militia Cavalry at Agra on the 4th July 1857, when the Kotah Contingent mutinied and the guns of the Contingent and all the ammunition and baggage were retaken by the Agra Cavalry in the action of the following day (Medal).

[444] Major J. W. H. Johnstone served in the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857-58, and was wounded at the attack on Thanna Bawun in September 1857; present with Seton's Column at the actions of Gungeree and Patialee, and reoccupation of Mynpoorce; also at the capture of the enemy's entrenched position at Bungaon in April 1858—wounded (Medal).

[447] Major A. Tulloch served with the Simoor Rifle Regiment before Delhi in 1857; was slightly wounded on the 17th July at Hindoo Rao's house by the bursting of a shell, severely wounded on the 14th July (Medal with Clasp). Served with the China Expeditionary Force in 1860-61 (Medal).

[449] Major G. N. Mouey served in Burmah in 1853-54. Served throughout the siege operations before Delhi from the 1st July 1857, including the actions of the 9th 14th and 23rd July, 1st and 2nd August, and other minor affairs, storming of the Cashmere Battery Breach on the 14th Sept. and throughout the assault of the city and the six days' fighting, resulting in its capture on the 20th Sept. Subsequently served as Staff Officer to Colonel Gerrard's Column in the operations against Mynpoorie and Kooch, where his horse killed under him at the action of Nargoul (mentioned in despatches). Was Adjutant to his Regiment in all the operations under Brigadier Seaton, including the actions at Gungeree, Puttecalee, and Mynpooree; also present at the Alumbagh and Transgogra operations; at the storm and capture of Lucknow, affair of Barree, and subsequent operations in Oude (Medal with two Clasps). Served as Adjutant and 2nd in Command of the 3rd Punjaub Infantry throughout the Umbeyla campaign of 1863 (Medal with Clasp).

[451] Major P. C. Rynd served in the suppression of the Indian mutiny in 1857-58, including the engagement at Dacca in November 1857 (Medal). Served with the Eusofzie Field Force in 1863, and was present at the engagements of the 15th and 16th December (Medal with Clasp). Present at the engagement with the Bazotee Tribe near Kohat on the North West Frontier on the 11th March 1868 (received the thanks of Government).

[452] Major H. M'D. de Douglas served during the Indian mutiny in 1857-58, and was present as a Volunteer with the Artillery at the action of Shahgunge near Agra on the 5th July, and at the battle of Agra on the 10th October 1857 (Medal).

[453] Lt. Col. C. A. de Kantzow served during the operations against the hill tribes on the Peshawur frontier in 1855 (Medal with Clasp). Was present at Mynpoorce on, during, and subsequent to the mutiny of the Native Troops at that station in May 1857, and received the Queen's gracious approbation and the Governor General's thanks for "admirable services" rendered at the imminent peril of his life. Was present with 39th Sowars in action at Bhowgong on 6th June 1857, against the mutineers of the 7th Light Cavalry, 13th 48th and 71st Native Infantry from Lucknow, and killed the rebel leader in hand-to-hand conflict, himself receiving a sabre wound on the forehead. Served at Mynpoorce in command of an Irregular Force up to the abandonment of the Station, and subsequently as a volunteer in the action of 5th July near Agra (horse killed), and in all minor operations up to 19th Aug. 1857. Commanded a Detachment of Agra Militia Cavalry in action near Allyghur on 24th August (mentioned in despatches), and during subsequent operations of Colonel Montgomerie's Column. Present as a volunteer in the battle of the 10th Oct. 1857 at Agra. Served with Sir Hope Grant's Column up to the reoccupation of Mynpoorce, and as Commandant of the Muttra Horse in Colonel Cotton's Movable Force during the operations at Futtehpore-Sikree, and elsewhere. Raised the Futtehpur Organized Police Battalion, and served as its Commandant in action at Bungaon (one charger and one troop-horse wounded under him; mentioned in despatches). Commanded the Cavalry in the action of 3rd May 1858 at Shahjehanpore (mentioned in despatches, charger wounded), the defence of the Jail, and affairs subsequent to the relief of the Garrison, including the action of the 15th May (very dangerously wounded by sabre cuts on face and right arm in hand-to-hand encounter). Present as Commandant of the Rohilcund Auxiliary Levy, which he had raised and organized, in defence of entrenchments and town of Poryaine from June to Nov. 1858, and in the many and various offensive and defensive operations, including the attack on the enemy's outpost at Ahmednaggur (thanked by Government of India) and siege of Poryaine (thanked by Government of India). Served with the same Levy on active service in the north of the Shahjehanpore district up to 28th Dec. 1858, and subsequently across the Sarda, move on Pullea, and expulsion of the rebels from the town and fort (thanked by Government of India) and pursuit into Oude. Present as a volunteer with a Troop of Cavalry and two Companies of the Rohilcund Auxiliary Levy with Brigadier Dennis' Column during pursuit in the Khyreeghur Jungles, and in two actions fought in Jan. 1859 (mentioned in despatches). Served with the Levy in active pursuit up to Nepaul, and in subsequent operations undertaken in clearing the district from rebels and marauders up to the end of the disturbances (thanked by Government of India). Has received the gracious approbation of Her Majesty for "excellent service" rendered to the State in 1857-58, been officially and especially reported to the Government of India when leaving Rohilcund in September 1859, for the "valuable services" rendered by the force under his command in Rohilcund; and honourably mentioned by the Government of the N.W. Provinces to the Government of India (Medal and Brevet of Major).

[454] Major H. B. B. Worsley served against rebels in Mirzapore district in 1857 (Medal). Served also in the South of China in 1858-59 (Medal).

[455] Major F. D. Harington served throughout the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

[456] Lt. Colonel Little served with the 17th Regiment in the Crimea, subsequent to the fall of Sebastopol, from the 26th Nov. 1855, till the evacuation in June 1856. Served as Adjutant of the 1st Battalion 7th Fusiliers in the Indian N.W. frontier war of 1863 with the Eusafyze Field Force, present at the defence of the Sungahs at the Umbeyla Pass and at the attack on and storming of the Conical Hill and destruction of Lalloo on the 15th Dec., also in the action a Umbeyla and destruction of the village at the foot of the Bonair Pass on 16th Dec., which ended in the complete rout of the enemy and the submission of the hill tribes on 17th Dec. (Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp).

[458] Major W. R. M. Holroyd was attached to the 60th Regt. during the Indian mutiny campaign in 1857–58, and served with the Central India Field Force under Sir Hugh Rose at the operations before Chanderi, at siege and storming of Jhansi (severely wounded), battle of Betwa, action of Koonch, siege and capture of Calpee (Medal with Clasp).

[459] Major C. S. Maclean served at the siege and capture of Delhi in 1857. Subsequently present at the actions of Boolundshuhur, Coel, Acrabad, and Agra—severely wounded (Medal with Clasp). Served with the China Expeditionary Force of 1860, and present at the action of Sinho, capture of the Taku Forts, actions of Chankiawan and Tangchow, and surrender of Pekin (Medal with two Clasps).

[460] Major H. C. P. Rice served as Assistant Commissariat Officer with the Sikkim Field Force in 1861.

[461] Major R. D. Osborn served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59; present at the actions of Boolundshuhur and Allyghur; commanded a detachment of the 4th Punjaub Infantry at the actions of Gungeree and Puttialee; present in various operations against the rebels in the Agra district; served with Colonel Troup's Column in Oude, and present at the action of Biswah; served with the Saugor Field Force under General Whitlock from January to May 1859; commanded a field detachment in the Oorai district; defeated a party of rebels at Tudhooeekee; and served with the Bundelcund Field Force under Brigadier Wheeler in 1859–60 (Medal).

[462] Major C. A. Baylay served in the Indian mutiny campaign (Medal).

[463] Major G. F. Graham served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, and was present at the affairs in the Etawah district; also with the Column under Brigadier Showers in the action of Dowsa against Tantia Topee on the 14th January 1859 (several times mentioned in despatches, Medal).

[464] Major A. Copland served with Colonel Craigie's force against the Hill Tribes on the Peshawur frontier in March 1855 (Medal with Clasp). Served also in the Bhootan campaign in 1865, and was present at the assault and capture of the Bala Stockade (Clasp).

[465] Major M. C. Perrean served with the China Expeditionary Force in 1860–61 (Medal).

[466] Major H. D. E. W. Chester served throughout the siege of Delhi from the 28th June 1857, to its final capture, and was slightly wounded on the 14th July. Served also at the siege and capture of Lucknow by Lord Clyde, including the affair at Bagh; also present at the affair of Baree (Medal with two Clasps).

[467] Major T. H. Lewin served in the Indian mutiny campaign, and was present at the defence of Cawnpore, under General Windham, in Nov. 1857; also at the taking of the fortified town of Meerguunge, the siege and capture of Lucknow by Lord Clyde, relief of Azimghur. Served also with the Central India Field Force under Brigadier Wheeler (Medal with two Clasps).

[469] Major J. N. B. Hewett served at the siege and capture of Delhi in 1857, and was present in all the actions there from the 23rd June to the 12th September (Medal with Clasp).

[470] Major H. L. A. Tottenham served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, and was present as a Mounted Escort to the guns at the action of Shahgunge near Agra, on the 5th July (slightly wounded), and as a volunteer at the battle of Agra on the 10th October 1857. Served also with the Column under Brigadier Horsford against the rebels in Nepaul, including the defeat of the rebels at Sitkaghat (Medal).

[471] Lt.-Colonel F. M. Birch served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857, and was present at the action of Chinhat throughout the defence of the Residency of Lucknow (as Aide de Camp to Brigadier Inglis from 2nd July to 25th Sept. 1857) being engaged in three sorties and commanded a party of the 84th Foot in repulse of a grand attack on the 18th August and subsequently regained possession of the breach (twice wounded, mentioned in despatches, and thanked by the Commander-in-Chief generally, battle of Cawnpore on 6th December, and capture of Hurrah (Medal with Clasp, a year's service, and Brevet of Major).

[472] Major J. W. M'Queen served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58; served with the 4th Punjaub Infantry at the siege assault and capture of Delhi; present with Greathed's Column in the actions of Boolundshuhur, Allyghur, Aksabad, Agra, and Kanouge; also in the advance to the relief of Lucknow, including action at Mariguuge, affairs near the Alumbagh and Dilkoosha, and storming of the Secunderbagh (severely wounded). Afterwards present at Cawnpore, and with the advance on Futtehghur; commanded the 4th Punjaub Infantry during the Oude and Rohilcund campaign in April and May 1858, including the capture of Bareilly (Medal with two Clasps). Served with the force under Brigadier General Chamberlain against the Cabool Kheyl Wuzeerees in December 1859 and January 1860; also with that against the Mahsood Wuzeerees in April and May 1860 (Medal with Clasp).

[473] Major T. Cadell served with the 2nd Bengal European Fusiliers throughout the operations before Delhi in 1857, and was present at the battle of Budleckeserai, the final assault and capture of the city, and the subsequent operations with the Movable Column under Brigadier Showers (Medal with Clasp, and Victoria Cross). Served in the 4th Irregular Cavalry with Brigadier Troup's Column in the Oude campaign of 1858–59; present at the action of Mehudi under Colonel Brind, in which 13 of the enemy's guns were captured; also with Colonel Turner's Column Rohilcund in 1859.

[475] Major G. A. A. Baker served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58; accompanied a detachment of the 2nd Bengal European Fusiliers in pursuit of the Jullunder Mutineers along the foot of the hills in June; rode with Mr. Forsyth the Deputy Commissioner at Umballa 30 miles a-head of the mutineers and saved a district tehseel in which was a large amount of treasure, succeeded, and gave such information to the troops on the Jumna as caused the effectual guarding of the fords and the dispersion of the rebels; present at the siege and assault of Delhi; commanded a troop of Hodson's Horse at Humayoon's Tomb when Major Hodson was endeavouring to capture the King of Delhi; received command of a squadron and was the first to receive the King, and held the rear until Major Hodson had safely conveyed his prisoner into Delhi. Was afterwards present at the actions of Boolundshuhur and Allyghur, at the taking of Futtehpore Sekree, actions of Gungeree, Puttialee, Mynpoorie, and Jellalabad, siege and capture of Lucknow and affair at the Mooshbagh, action of Nawabgunge, and occupation of Fyzabad (mentioned in despatches, Medal with two Clasps). Served the campaign of 1860 in China, including the action of Sinho, capture of the Taku Forts, actions of Chankiawhan and Palichau (wounded and charger wounded), and advance on Pekin (Medal with Clasp).

[476] Major H. M. Repton served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, and was present at the affair at Futtehpore, Jana, Orayiah, and Shereghurghat, pursuit of the rebel force under Ferozeshah, and the Bundlecund campaign (Medal).

[477] Major J. Upperton commanded a body of Irregular Cavalry during the Indian mutiny in 1857–58 in and about the Delhi division and on the borders of Central India; throughout the Oude campaign in 1858–59, and present at the capture of the forts of Amathie and Shunkurghur, and action of Dhoondiakhera (Medal with Clasp). Served with Fane's Horse throughout the campaign of 1860 in China, and was present at the action of Sinho, capture of the Taku Forts, actions of Chankiawhan (thanked by the Commander in Chief of the French forces) and Palichau, and capture of Pekin (Medal with two Clasps).

[478] Major H. C. T. Jarrett served in the Indian Mutiny campaign (Medal), and was awarded the Victoria Cross for an act of bravery at the village of Baroun on the 14th October 1858.

[480] Major W. G. Cubitt served in the Volunteer Cavalry at the action of Chinhut on the 30th June 1857 and was awarded the Victoria Cross for having on the retreat saved the lives of three men of the 32nd Foot at the risk of his own life; was afterwards present throughout the defence of the Residency at Lucknow and was wounded (Medal with Clasp, and a year's service).

[481] Major P. T. Bainbridge served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, including the siege and capture of Lucknow, operations on the Gorrackpore and Nepaul frontiers, and final dispersion there of the rebels (Medal with Clasp). Raised the Rawul Pindee Mule Train for the Abyssinian expedition in 1867; commanded the Train throughout the expedition, and was present at the action of Arogee and capture of Magdala (mentioned in despatches, Medal, and Brevet of Major). Served with the Hazara field force in 1868, including the expedition against the tribes on the Black Mountain (Medal with Clasp).

[482] Major F. J. Keen served with the 2nd Punjaub Infantry during the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58; was present at the siege assault and capture of Delhi, battles of Boolundshuhur and Agra, relief of the garrison of Lucknow, by Lord Clyde, battle of Cawnpore, action of Khodagunge, siege and capture of Lucknow, occupation of Bareilly, and many minor affairs (Medal with two Clasps).

[483] Major O. Menzies served in the Oude campaign in 1858 and was present at the storm and capture of the fort of Rampore Kussia (Medal).

[484] Major E. D. H. Vibart served with the 1st Bengal European Fusiliers at the siege of Delhi in 1857, including the battle of Najuffghur, storm and capture of Delhi; present at the action of Narloul; subsequently accompanied Seton's Column to Futtehghur and present at the actions of Gungeeree, Pattialee, and Mynpoorie; served with the 2nd Punjaub Infantry at the siege and capture of Lucknow, also with several Movable Columns under Sir Hope Grant and General Walpole, and present at the capture of Bareilly (Medal with two Clasps).

[486] Lt.Colonel E. A. C. Lambert served in the Burmese war of 1852–53 and was present at the operations in the march from Martaban to Tongoo (Medal with Clasp for Pegu). Served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, and was present throughout the siege assault and capture of Delhi, including the battle of Budleekeserai and actions of the 12th 17th 19th 20th and 22nd June (struck down by a sunstroke), and action of Nujjuffghur; Oude campaign of 1858–59 and affair at Sultanpore (Medal with Clasp).

[487] Lt.Colonel L. H. P. De H. Larpent commanded a detachment of his regiment with the force under Colonel Vaughan in the Meranzaie district in July and August 1857. Served as Quarter Master of his regiment with the Eusofzaie expeditionary force under Sir Sydney Cotton in 1858, and was present at the destruction of Chinglee Mungrul, Thana, and Sittana (Medal with Clasp). Served also during the mutinies of 1857–58.

[488] Lt.Colonel F. M. Armstrong served with the 6th Punjaub Infantry in the expeditionary force under Brigadier General Chamberlain in Maranzaie and Koorum in 1856. Served also throughout the mutinies in the Peshawur and Geogaria districts (Medal).

[489] Major R. Smith served with the Delhi Field Force in 1857 and was present at the occupation of Jhujjur.

[490] Major A. Bruce served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, and was present at the action of Sultanpore, and siege and capture of Lucknow (Medal with Clasp). Served also in the Bhootan campaign of 1865–66 (Medal with Clasp).

[491] Captain F. F. Roweroft served in the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Served with the Bhootan Field Force throughout the operations of 1864–66, including the capture of various stockades (Medal with Clasp). Served in the Hazara campaign in 1868 including the expedition against the tribes on the Black Mountain (Clasp).

[492] Major R. S. Robertson served in the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Also in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, including the capture of Jugdespore, siege and capture of Lucknow (Medal with Clasp). Served in the Cossiah and Jynteah Hills in 1862–63 at the assault and capture of the stockades of Oemkoi, Nunghurai, Oomkung, and Surteong (severely wounded). Served with the Column of the Doosr Field Force in 1865–66.

[493] Major T. N. Walker served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58 with the 2nd Bengal European Fusiliers, including all the siege operations before Delhi in 1857 (wounded on the 18th July), and was selected as one of the Suhalterns of the ladder party at the final assault and capture of the city (wounded on the 15th September) was afterwards present at the capture of the heights of Sonah, and surrender of the forts of Rewarrie, Jujhiun, Ranoude, Furruckuagur, and Bullumbghur; served with the 17th Punjaub Infantry in the Rohilcund campaign in 1858 including the actions of Aurah, Bagawalla, and Nugeega, and relief of Moradabad (Medal with Clasp). Has been presented with the Bronze Medal of the Royal Humane Society.

[494] Major W. W. Hume served at the commencement of the Indian mutiny with the Meerut Volunteer Cavalry; afterwards as a volunteer with the Artillery before Delhi during the siege and capture of that city (Medal with Clasp).

[495] Major B. Cracroft served throughout the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56 and was slightly wounded. Served also in the Central Indian campaign with the force under General Whitlock and was present at the attack and capture of Punwarree Heights near Kirwee on 20th Dec. 1858 (mentioned in despatches, Medal).

[496] Major A. M'L. Stewart served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58; with the Delhi field force in September 1857; present at the taking of Jhujjur, actions of Shumshabad and Mhow near Futtehghur, siege and capture of Lucknow (severely wounded on 10th March 1858), attack on Rooya, action at Allygunge, taking of Shajehanpore, siege and capture of Bareilly (Medal with Clasp).

[497] Major J. Bardenhen served with the 86th Foot in the Central India campaign of 1857–58 and was present at the siege and capture of Chanderee, siege and capture of Jhansi, action of Koonch, operations before and taking of Calpee; served with the 2nd Sikh Police Corps against the rebels in the Jugdespore district from August to November 1858 (Medal with Clasp). Served with the 8th Punjaub Infantry in the campaign of 1860 in China, including the action of Sinho, capture of the entrenched camp at Tangku, capture of the Taku Forts, and capitulation of Pekin (Medal with two Clasps).

[498] Lt.Colonel A. E. Campbell served with the 31st Bengal Native Infantry during the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Also at Saugor in Central India during 1857–58; present at numerous engagements in the district of Saugor, and was severely wounded on the 18th Sept. 1857 in the attack on the fortified village of Nurricoulee (Medal with Clasp).

[499] Lt.Colonel G. V. Fosbery served with the Eusofzaie expeditionary force under Generals Chamberlain and Garvock during the operations at Umbeyla from October to December 1863 where he commanded a body of marksmen of the 71st and 101st Regiments armed with rifles firing shells of his own invention; was engaged in the defence of the Crag and Eagle's Nest Piquets, and as a volunteer with Major Keyes at the storming of the Sunga on the Crag Piquet, where he led a party of the 1st Punjaub Infantry and Corps of Guides, and was the first man in driving out a strong body of the enemy, estimated at 500 strong, after desperate hand-to-hand fighting (mentioned in despatches, Victoria Cross, Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

[500] Major J. C. C. Daunt served in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58; present at the attack and defeat of the Ramghur Battalion at Chuttra, Chota Nagpore on the 2nd October; attack and defeat of the mutineers of the 32nd Native Infantry at Nowadah, Behar, on the 2nd Nov. 1857—severely wounded (Medal, and awarded the Victoria Cross for acts of bravery in capturing two guns on the 2nd October and 2nd November 1857. Served in China in 1858 and was present at the affair with the Braves at the White Cloud Mountains, at the repulse of the Chinese at the Landing Pier and at the Magazine Hill (Medal).

[501] Major J. W. O'Dowda served during the Sonthal campaign of 1855.

[502] Major A. Vivian commanded a Ressala of Pathan Horse during the mutiny in 1857–59; assisted in the suppression of the rebellion of the Jat tribes of the Ranee in the Gogaria district in 1857; accompanied Brigadier Frankel's column in the advance on Lucknow, and present at the capture of the fort of Dhowrara; also during the operations before and capture of Lucknow by Lord Clyde; stationed at Oonao on the Lucknow and Cawnpore road from April to November 1858 assisting to keep the road clear of the rebels, during which time he had frequent skirmishes with the enemy; served with Colonel Kelly's Column in the operations on the Nepaul frontier in 1859; and present at the attack on the rebel position in the hills near Bootwul (Medal with Clasp). Served with the 3rd Punjaub Cavalry in the expedition under Brigadier General Chamberlain against the Mahsood Wuzeeress in 1860, including the repulse of the enemy's attack on them at Paloseen, and the forcing of the Barrarah Pass (Medal with Clasp).

[503] Major R. E. Boyle served during the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59; pursuit of the Sealcote mutineers in July 1857; with 2nd Bengal European Fusiliers in Brigadier Showers' Column in the districts west of Delhi in October and November 1857, and present at the occupation of Rewaree, Jhujjur, and Kanound; served with the 2nd Sikh Cavalry with the Bundlecund Field Force under Brigadier Wheeler, commanded a field detachment. Engaged near Geree Patoree on 7th Nov. 1859; commanded No. 3 Bundlecund Flying Column from December 1859 to March 1860 (thanked by Government of India, Medal).

[504] Major C. W. Campbell was present at the mutiny of the Native Troops at Lucknow in 1857; joined the Volunteer Cavalry and was engaged in several reconnaissances prior to the battle of Chinhut and present also at that action (severely wounded); served throughout the defence of the Residency of Lucknow (wounded), and afterwards at the recapture of Cawnpore from the Gwalior Contingent (Medal with Clasp, and a year's service). Served with Pane's Horse throughout the campaign of 1860 in China, including the capture of the Taku Forts and subsequent operations up to the surrender of Pekin (Medal with two Clasps).

[505] Major N. R. Burlton served during the Sonthal campaign of 1855–56. Served also in the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58, and was present at the action of Sonepore, capture of the fort of Chandeepore, actions at Phoolpore and Amorka, capture of Fort Nuggur and Jugdespore (Medal).

[506] Major S. J. Browne served with the 5th Punjaub Infantry during the Oude campaign of 1858–59, and was present at the passage of the Raptee and capture of the enemy's guns at Sitkaghat; commanded a detachment of the Regiment at Durzee Talas—horse shot (Medal). Served with the 6th Punjaub Infantry throughout the Umbeyla campaign of 1863 (Medal with Clasp).

[507] Major O. M. Graham served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59, including the occupation of the Alumbagh previous to and after the relief of Lucknow, also relief of Lucknow by Lord Clyde; Rohilcund and Oude campaigns (Medal with Clasp).

[514] Major P. W. Powlett served during the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58, and was present at the actions of Allyghur, Agra, Kanouje, and Bunnee Bridge, relief of Lucknow by Lord Clyde (mentioned in despatches), defeat of the Gwalior Contingeut at Cawupore, action at Kalee Nudee, siege and capture at Lucknow—severely wounded (Medal with two Clasps).

[516] Major M. P. Ricketts served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58; accompanied as Interpreter to 37th Regt. and other detachments sent to the relief of the besieged Garrison at Arrah: acted as Staff Officer to Colonel Milman at the action of Alrowlee (mentioned in despatches), and present throughout the siege of Azimghur from 28th March to 15th April 1858, and various skirmishes (Medal).

[517] Major C. A. Munro served as interpreter to the Naval Brigade under Captain Peel in 1857 and was present at the action of Kudjwa, occupation of the Alumbagh during the relief of Lucknow, and battle of Cawnpore on the 6th December 1857 (Medal with Clasp).

[519] Major F. J. N. Mackenzie served with the Kamptee movable column and was engaged against the Bundelas and the mutineers of the 52nd Native Infantry in August and September 1857 (Medal).

[520] Major O. R. Newmarch served with the Agra Brigade in 1857 and was present in the action of the 5th July with the Neemuch mutineers. Served with Brigadier Seatou's Column in December 1857 and was present at the actions of Gungeeree and Puttialee (Medal).

[521] Major F. W. Boileau served as Adjutant of Rajah Jawahir's Singh's Contingent with the force under General Van Courtlandt, and received a dangerous sabre cut in the face and a sabre cut in the hand at the action of Hissar on the 19th August 1857. Served in the 2nd Sikh Cavalry with Brigadier Troup's Column in November and December 1858, and was present at the action of Biswah. Served with the Saugor field force under General Whitlock. Commanded a Squadron of the 4nd Sikh Cavalry at the action of Kewtee in Bundelcund on the 4th March 1859, and was wounded by a pistol-shot in the knee (mentioned in despatches, thanked by the Governor General in Council, Medal).

[522] Major M. Ramsay was present at the mutiny of the Native Troops at Jullunder on the 7th June 1857 and accompanied the force in pursuit (Medal).

[523] Major H. C. E. Ward served as a volunteer at the latter part of the siege and at the assault of Delhi in 1857. Served with the Corps of Guides in Brigadier Showers' Column in the Delhi District, and present at the action of Narnoul (Medal with Clasp). Served with the Guides in the expedition under Sir Sydney Cotton on the Eusofzaie Frontier in 1851; and in that under Brigadier General Chamberlain against the Cabool Kheyl Wuzeerees in 1859 (Medal with Clasp).

[524] Major Henry Thompson served with the 19th Regiment in the Crimea, subsequent to the fall of Sebastopol, from the 9th March 1856 until the withdrawal of the Army. Served as Adjutant of the Bijnour Rajpoot Levy during the operations in Bundlecund under Brigadier Wheler in 1859; and as Brigade Major with the Cachar column of the Looshai Expeditionary Force under Sir G. Bourchier in 1871–72 (mentioned in despatches, Medal with Clasp, and Brevet of Major).

[524] Major J. C. Minto served with the Irregular Forces under Sir George Cathcart during the Kaffir war of 1852–53 (Medal).

[525] Major H. Collett served with the expedition under Sir Sydney Cotton on the Eusofzaie Frontier in 1858, and was present at the affairs of Chingli and Sittana (Medal with Clasp). Oude campaign of 1858–59, including the storm and capture of the fort of Rampore Kussea (Medal). Served with the force in the Cossyah and Jynteah Hills during the rebellion of 1862–63, and was present at the storm and capture of Oomkoi, Nungarai, and Oomkrong (severely wounded).

[526] Major E. L. Ommanney served at the siege assault and capture of Delhi in 1857 (Medal with Clasp).

[527] Major H. M. B. Burlton served with the 8th Foot in various skirmishes at Agra in 1858. Served with Meade's Horse at the capture of Gwalior; commanded the Regiment during the pursuit of the rebels by Sir Robert Napier and was present at the action of Joura Alipore; commanded a detachment of Meade's Horse on field service in operations against Tantia Topee and other rebels from October 1858 to February 1859 (Medal).

[528] Major R. C. W. Mitford served throughout the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–59 and was present at the action of the 5th July near Agra with the Neemuch mutineers, the battle of Agra on the 10th Oct. 1857, affair of Futtehpore-Seekree, and other minor actions in the Agra District. Present with Hodson's Horse at the capture of Lucknow; commanded a detachment of the Regiment in the action of Nawabgunge, Bara, Benkee, and Selimpore (charger wounded), and was highly mentioned by the Governor General for "gallantry in capturing a party of rebels in the village of Behipore with 20 dismounted sowars." Proceeded with 130 sabres to join the force under Major Bulwer at Jabrowlee, and on the 16th October charged and defeated a large body of rebel Infantry, receiving a slight wound. In the subsequent action of Jabrowlee on the 23rd October 1858 the detachment of Hodson's Horse under his command captured three guns and cut up a large number of the enemy's Infantry—was severely wounded in this action whilst assisting an Officer of the Uncovenanted Civil Service who was attacked by several of the rebels and would probably have been cut down but for timely aid. On partially recovering from his wound he rejoined the 3rd Regiment of Hodson's Horse as Adjutant and served the Trans-Gogra campaign of 1859 up to the final surrender of the rebels in December (Medal, and recommended by Lord Clyde for the Victoria Cross).

[529] Major A. Fitz Hugh served in three affairs against Momunds at Fort Shubkudr in Dec. 1863 and January 1864. Also in the expedition to Donr under Brigadier General Keyes in Feb. 1872.

[530] Major R. B. F. F. Campbell served with the 1st Bengal European Fusiliers at the siege and capture of Delhi in 1857, and with the 2nd European Fusiliers in the subsequent operations in the Meerut, Jhujjur, and Raweree districts. Was attached to the faithful remnants of the 11th Native Infantry, and engaged in rescuing the Rohilcund refugees. Served with the 2nd Punjaub Cavalry at the siege and capture of Lucknow, action of Koorsee, capture of Rooya, action of Allygunge, capture of Bareilly, action of Rohunpore, and against the rebels in the Terai (Medal with two Clasps). Served with the expeditionary force under Brigadier General Chamberlain against the Cabool Kheyl Wuzeerees in 1859–60 (Medal with Clasp).

[531] Major A. G. Owen was present at the battle of Budleekeserai and in all the subsequent engagements under the walls of Delhi in 1857, including the action of Nujuffghur; also present at the storm and capture of Delhi—dangerously wounded (Medal with Clasp).

[532] Major R. A. Wauchope served in 1857 with the 4th Sikh Infantry at the siege and capture of Delhi, and was engaged at the repulse of many of the enemy's attacks; on the 14th September he commanded 50 men at the storming of the Water Bastion; was engaged at the subsequent six days' street fighting in the city, and on the 19th September commanded a Detachment at the capture of the Burn Bastion (Medal with Clasp). In 1860–61 served with Rattray's Sikhs against the hill tribes in Sikkim with the force under Colonel Gawler (mentioned in despatches). In 1863 served in the 23rd Pioneers with the Eusofzie Field Force in the Umbeyla campaign, and was engaged at the storming of the Conical Hill, capture of Lalloo, and final defeat of the enemy at the Bonair Pass (Medal with Clasp). In 1864–65 served during the Bootan war, and engaged at Dalimkote, Chamoorchi, Bala, and Buxa (mentioned in despatches, Clasp). In 1874–75 served with the Duffla expedition under Brigadier General Stafford (mentioned in despatches). Commanded the Transport Corps with the force under Colonel Nuttall in the operations against Naga Hill Tribes on the North Eastern frontier of India in 1875 (mentioned in despatches).

[533] Major H. A. Lewes was present at the outbreak of the mutiny at Meerut on the 10th May 1857, and was severely wounded. Served with the Meerut Volunteer Horse raised for service in that district, and afterwards with 7th Punjaub Infantry at the actions of Gungeree and Puttialee, attack on and reoccupation of Mynpoorie, also at Bungaon, assault and capture of Firoz Dehlan and Tirroul, operations of Brigadier Kelly's Force in the Terai, and forcing of the enemy's position in the Jurwah Pass, lower Nepaul Range (Medal). Served as Adjutant 30th Punjaub Infantry during the Bhootan campaign in 1864–65, and was engaged at the capture of Forts Dalimkote and Chamoorchee, and at the Bala Pass, and Nagoh stockades (Medal with Clasp).

[534] Major H. G. Saunders served during the Indian mutiny campaign of 1857–58 including the action of the 5th July 1857 near Agra with the Neemuch mutineers, and affair at Sheregha (Medal).

[535] Major R. H. Hudleston served as Adjutant of the 9th Punjaub Infantry with the force under Sir Sydney Cotton to the Eusofzie frontier in 1858, and was present at the affairs of Chingli and Sittana (Medal with Clasp).

[536] Major R. M. Skinner served in the defence of the Kumaon Hills and Rohilcund against the rebels in 1857–58, and present at the actions of Huldwanee on the 17th Sept. 1857 and 1st Jan. 1858, and Cherpoorah on 18th Feb. 1858 and saved the life of his commanding Officer at the risk of his own (Medal).

[537] Major R. T. Hare served throughout the suppression of the Indian mutiny, including the battle of Budleekese-